

If a merchant sold you a piece of shoddy goods, no doubt you would return it to him, speak your mind and demand your money back. But do you do this to a high public official who takes your taxes and gives you poor government? If not, why not?

JoAnne Olson Married Saturday at Holy Name

JoAnne Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren T. Olson, was wed to Robert L. Saffell at a double ring ceremony held in Holy Name Church Saturday evening, September 22. The couple repeated their vows before the Rev. David Duncan, pastor. Robert, home on furlough from Fort Lee, Virginia, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Saffell of Tottenham road.

MRS. ROBERT L. SAFFELL

The bride stood before the altar in a gown of ivory satin which carried over into a medium train. Her dress was highlighted by her mother's rosepoint lace which edged the collar, cuffs and cap. Her finger-tip veil was of illusion lace, and her arm bouquet was a cascade of stephanotis with an inset of white orchids.

Two of the bride's sisters served as attendants, Judy Olson as maid of honor, and Molly Olson, as one of the bridesmaids. Other bridesmaids were Susan Hubbard, cousin of the bride, and Margaret Horne. Another cousin, Lane Hubbard, served as flower-girl.

The attendants were all gowned alike in dark green velvet over hoops. A band of green velvet flowers was set in at the neckline, and stoles over the shoulders completed the costumes. Their headpieces were of real ivy, nipped over the ear with a rose from their bouquets. The maid of honor carried red roses, and the bridesmaids carried loose-arm bouquets of yellow roses.

Tom Olson, the bride's brother, performed the ring-bearer's duties. William Saffell served his brother as best man.

Birmingham Puppeteers Meet to Discuss Scripts

The first get-together of the new season for the Birmingham Puppeteers of A.A.U.W. was held Tuesday, Sept. 25 at the home of Mrs. Claude Urevig, 1011 Forest, under the leadership of co-chairmen Mrs. Charles Bigelow and Mrs. Robert von Maur.

Chief topic of discussion was the selection of a new play script for use with the larger of the Puppeteers' two portable stages. It was recommended that the group give the major portion of its performances before children in hospitals and institutions. Several local organizations are already considering sponsoring these performances.

Anyone interested in joining the Puppeteers is asked to contact Mrs. Bigelow. Experience in puppetry is not necessary since the work of the group covers not only the construction of marionettes but play writing, production, staging and lighting.
