

St. Dunstan's Guild To Open 20th Season

St. Dunstan's Guild of Cranbrook will open its twentieth season with a production of the farce-comedy, "Clutterbuck," in the Cranbrook Pavilion, on Lone Pine Road. The play will run for four performances, Friday and Saturday, October 12-13 and 19-20.

"Clutterbuck," which enjoyed a long run in London and New York, was written by Benn Levy, best known as the author of the perennial comedy favorite, "Springtime For Henry."

The unusual title of "Clutterbuck" is the name of one of the characters involved in a comic plot which investigates the comings and goings of three couples on a Mediterranean cruise.

Thomas J. King is directing the comedy, which takes place on the deck of an ocean liner and on the terrace of a continental hotel. The sets have been designed by Mr. John W. Blanchard, and Marjorie Smith is acting as production manager.

OTHERS ON THE technical staff include Harry Wise, stage manager; Walter T. Bromley, set; Mrs. Edward T. Bennett, properties; Mrs. Anthony Randall, costumes; Pearl Peterson, lines; Mrs. Frederick Weed, make-up; and James Schneider, lights.

The board of directors of St. Dunstan's Guild has appointed committee chairmen for the coming season. They are: Mrs. Thomas K. Evans, costumes; Harry Booth, design; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hutton, entertainment; Mr. and Mrs. Rogers I. Marquis, house; James Schneider, lights; Mrs. Frederick Weed, make-up.

Other committee chairmen are: Dr. Dwight Ensign, photographic; Mrs. Otis C. Thompson, play reading and casting; Mrs. Edward T. Bennett, properties; Marjorie Smith, publicity; Winston T. Kellogg, stage; and Mrs. Rawson Valle, tickets.

Jervis B. McMechan, who has been Technical Director of St. Dunstan's for the past three years, will continue in that position this year.

WITH THE Collegians

Christ Church Auxiliary Holds Open House

The Women's Auxiliary of Christ Church, Cranbrook, were hosts to members and newcomers at a luncheon and open house on Tuesday, September 25. Mrs. W. Sydney Gilbreath, Jr., was general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Robert F. Grindley.

Mrs. Carl Braadt were in charge of table decorations, and hostesses were Mrs. Robert F. DeWitt, Mrs. Lawrence W. Pearson and Mrs. William H. Mead. Also welcoming the guests were officers of the auxiliary, Mrs. Irving MacKenzie, first vice-president; Mrs. Alan W. Joslyn, second vice-president; Mrs. W. B. Hoge, treasurer; Mrs. Warren S. Booth, recording secretary; Mrs. Russell H. Meyer, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. George O. Cutter, U.T.O. treasurer.

Highlight of the afternoon was a Workshop exhibition, including displays of the Auxiliary's work in the Red Cross, hospitals, and varying other fields.

Tea was served, presided over by Mrs. Donald Tompkins and Ann Driener. Mrs. Irving MacKenzie performed the duties of president in the absence of Mrs. Charles Welch, Jr., president of the auxiliary.

Local Woman Honored At Rites Abroad

Mrs. Alfred E. Grann of Oak Hill drive was recently decorated by the Union Internationale de Protection de l'Enfance de Geneve, Switzerland, with the Ordre de la Croix.

The presentation was made by the president of the Save the Children Federation in Denmark where Mrs. Grann had gone to be present at the dedication of the William S. Knudsen Home for Children.

Mrs. Grann is the first American woman to receive this decoration.

Photos must be submitted by noon each Friday to insure publication the following Thursday.

HE NEEDS HELP!

It isn't enough for his own parents to love this future citizen. It takes the love of all the people who make up a big city.

We need everybody's help in taking care of children who are neglected, children who are sick or crippled, children who need the good fellowship that wards off delinquency.

And your best way to help them is also the most efficient way to help them. Do it through the Torch Drive.

How much should you give? Let your heart tell you. Just remember: it takes a full year's worth of generosity, from every contributor, to make a success of a once-a-year campaign!
