

Crane Soccer Team Plays at Chatham Friday

"Hadaool", Cranbrook's mascot will be on hand Friday afternoon when the Cranbrook soccer team inaugurates the beginning of the twentieth year of organized soccer at the field in Chatham, Ont. to face the Collegiate Institute's eleven. Six of the blue and gray starting eleven will be letter winners from last year's team. Newly elected Captain Harry Lomason will defend Cranbrook's goal and he will be supported by full-backs Jim Paterson and Bob Gillow.

COACH WAYNE LAWRENCE is strongly dependent on half-backs Pete Hait, Lawrence Parker and Jim Stadler to carry the brunt of the load. Cranbrook's scoring punch will come from Stan Hirt, Al Robinson, John Hatch and Grant Griswold.

The Varsity Soccer Schedule includes games against Patterson Collegiate Institute Oct. 3; Lake Forest Academy Oct. 6; University School Oct. 13; Shady Side Academy Oct. 20; Western Reserve Academy Oct. 27; Nicholas School Nov. 3; and Chatham, Ont., Vocational School Nov. 9.

New Students At Baldwin

By VIRGINIA ROBERTSON

With the school year just begun, Birmingham high school again has welcomed the many new students arriving from all corners of the United States.

From nearby Kingswood come Judith Anderson, Lynn Bennett, and Mimi Neff. Royal Oak sends Ronald Barber, Frederick Barber, and Beverly Nordstrom with John Baker, John Conroy, Mary Lou Halcomb, and John Hoane transferring from the Shrine.

New students from Redford are Marion Dombrowsky, Ruth Dombrowsky, Marion Finney, and Thomas a Maund. From Grassie Pointe are Mary Good, Robert Goss, and Darlene Kopf. Pontiac transfers are John Hildebrandt, Mildred Rawlings, and Edward Stout.

FROM VARIOUS SCHOOLS in Detroit are Horace D'Angelo, Jr., William Allen, Howard Blake, Robert Campbell, Carole Goldstein, Nancy Hay, Janet McCall, Thomas Skeehan, William Sheridan, and Mary Whiting.

Other students from Michigan are David Cole, Fernalde; Roddy Brawnfield, Bloomfield Hills; Roberta Gabbins, Flint; Joan Hefflin, Dearborn; Joan Johnson, Holly; Donald King, Lake Orion; Genevieve LeLand, Nagsareth; Richard Methner, Auburn Heights; and Beverly Turcotte, Oxford.

Outstate new students are Robert Allen, N. J.; Richard Alexander, Md.; Sandra Bernat, Ind.; Robert Bradley, Mass.; James Barber, Iowa; Elizabeth Buckner, Ohio; Gary Bas, Cal.; Howard Christie Jr., Ga.; Jean Flares, Ariz.; Robert Jenkins, Ohio; Carol Klant, Pa.; Robert Leand, Ohio; and Thomas Strub, Mo.

Former residents who have attended school elsewhere and have returned to Birmingham are Shirley Ann Bever, Redford; John Fredrick, Detroit; West Galloway, Conn.; Louise Hanna, Utah; Richard Mitchell, Ontario; Janet Quilhot, Florida; Mary Saunders, Virginia; and Jim Thoms, Conn.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE SCHOOL NEWS

Bloomfield Village school now has an enrollment of 140 students, which is an increase of 44 over last year's figure. According to Principal Raymond Wilson, quite a few more are expected to enroll before Christmas as new homes are being built.

A school health committee has been chosen to work with Miss Nancy McCortney, school nurse, and each room has one representative. Bill Cartwright represents the fifth and sixth grades; Ann Bauer the fourth and fifth grades; Mary Gillen second and third grade room and Kenny Poole is the committee member from the first and second grade room.

Nancy McCortney was elected a student representative of the Birmingham Schools health council and Miss Mary Elizabeth Holcomb is teacher representative.

THE HEALTH COMMITTEE held its first meeting last Thursday. Under the supervision of Miss Curtin, first aid kits were made and placed in each room and the boiler room.

A Junior Defense Council has also been formed. The student representative from the school is Peggy Grier and Edward Crandall is chairman. Teacher representative of the council held its first meeting at Baldwin high school Monday.

At the beginning of school, there have been two fire drills and one air raid drill.

A G-Y group has been organized for the year and met for the first time in the school gym. Mrs. Mary Ann Hartrick has started practicing with the school choir.

CHOSEN TO SING are Ann Abbott, Phillip Andrae, Sara Bartholomew, Ann Bauer, Peter Beardsley, Marilyn Brant, Bonnie Braund, Bonnie Cartwright, Helen Cudini, Martha Doss, Richard Egan, Charles Erlanson, Susan Ganter, Elizabeth Gillen, Carol Green, Mickey Harris, Penny Green, George Harris, Fredrick Harris.

KINDERGARTEN — Donna Richardson celebrated her fifth birthday Monday, Sept. 17. Lynn Walker, Tommy Abbott, Susie Henry, Bobbie Stevenson and Cookie Rodman have also been out of school with illnesses this past week. Next week Kindergarten will be on a full morning schedule.

First and second—the students have finished making their color booklets and have them up on the board. They are starting to read in their first pre-primer.

Dickie Braund and Joseph Thomas have been absent and Mate Davies had a birthday Sept. 19. Jamie Michaels celebrated her birthday Sept. 8 and Joseph Thomas his Sept. 18. Kenny Poole has been chosen as room representative to the School Health Committee.

SECOND AND THIRD—Bill Purdy, reporter. His second graders from Mrs. Agnes' room have moved into this room. The children colored pretty pictures and then painted over the crayon.

Mary Gillen was chosen from this room to be on the health council. Wesley Anderson, Larry Crawford and Richard Beardsley were absent this week.

Fourth and fifth—Class officers for this week are Mike Jackson, president and Jackie Paulus, vice-president. Ann Bauer was elected member to the school health council. A group of pupils under the direction of Fritzi Harris is rehearsing play based on the Mama Television series.

FIFTH AND SIXTH—Nancy McCortney and Donald Anderson have been absent due to illness and is back to school now. Bill Cartwright is room representative to the school health council and Nancy McCortney was chosen to represent the School at the Birmingham health council.

Penny Greer is the school member of the Birmingham Junior Defense Council. Instead of working in pennsylvania one day of each week students write news items for this column.

Students, Faculty At Baldwin Enjoy Summer Vacations

Now that summer is over and everyone is back in the normal routine many interesting vacation experiences are being recalled. It would be impossible to tell here how nearly 600 students and teachers spent the summer, some traveling, some working and some just relaxing.

Among the most interesting was the trip which Judy Rimer, Layland, Milly Beck, Virginia Wagner, Sheila Kelly and Gail Greig took out West on the Chet Sampson tour.

BILL NICHOLAS fought four fires in Idaho's Coeur d'Alene national forest. Carol Mearson went to Hawaii for four weeks on the S. S. Lurline. Suzanne Jones was riding counselor at WYCA Camp Maqua at Loon Lake.

Miss Virginia Loxis, Spanish teacher, went to Mexico for six weeks and Miss Angelina Gaziario, world history teacher, traveled in Europe, staying in Italy for three weeks.

Mrs. Mary Hartwick, English instructor, chaperoned 90 girls, ages nine to 17 from their homes to Teton Valley Ranch Jackson, Wyo. She has made the trip the past four years.
