Re-roof NOW with BIRD SHINGLES!

You've heard the story about the little Dutch boy at the dike? Well, a leak in the roof has the same moral... if it isn't stopped in time it can raise ructions with your house and your pocketbook! No time like the present to get a good, sound roof applied over the old one without fuss or muss. And you'll congratulate yourself for years to come when you choose a BIRD roof! A Bird roof assures QUALITY plus protection... fire-resistant, too! Call us up... no obligation.

Far East Affairs To Be Hi-2 Topic

C. Forrest Cress, executive manager of the eastern division, Chrysler Motor Corp., will speak to Birmingham High Twelve members Monday evening at the Community House. His topic will be "The Far East and Its Conditions."

Cress has been with Chrysler for 17 years and prior to that was associated with Standard Oil and General Motors. He has been in the Far East, including China and Africa, for 25 years.

During World War II he was captured by the Japanese in the Philippines and spent two years in a prison camp.

He became a member of International No. 1, F.A.M., in China in 1918.

Cress completed a trip around the world in 1950. Cress will leave the United States again Oct. 15 for a similar study of world conditions.

Women's Club Party

The Women's Club Party will be held on Thursday, Sept. 20 at the West Bloomfield town hall at 8:30 p.m. All members, husbands and friends are invited.

Tickets will be sold at the door or can be obtained from members of the committee, who are Mrs. Richard McKay, Mrs. Howard Gould, Mrs. Herman Fiebig, Mrs. John Smith and Mrs. Lester Johns.

Girl Scout Affairs

Final arrangements are being made this week for the girl scout camping program which will be presented at the regular meeting of the Women's club Tuesday evening, Oct. 2 at the Town hall.

Mrs. Edson Stevens assisted by Mrs. John Parkins, Mrs. Perry Graber and Mrs. James Roberts are planning the program with the girls' help and refreshments will be served by Mrs. Mahlon Sinton, Mrs. P. C. Banker, Mrs. Edward Sintz, Mrs. Martin Wade and Mrs. George Osterback.

Fifth, sixth and seventh grade girls will take part and their mothers will be guests of the club that evening. The executive board met at the home of Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald for the regular meeting Thursday evening.

Troop 58 held a cook-out at Beach No. 2 during its meeting Monday. Members made cocoa and pancakes and prepared fresh vegetables from their parents' gardens. The program was planned by Mary Roberts and Leslie Stevens who also made the cookies.

Mrs. Lee D. Hanson attended the meeting of the Birmingham Girl Scout council camping committee Wednesday morning at the home of the chairman, Mrs. L. D. Gilliam. They evaluated last summer's troop and day camping program.

Friday, the Brownie and Intermediate girl scout leaders will attend the Home-Coming council meeting. Troop committee members are also invited to meet other adult scouts of Birmingham.

Junior Big Committee

The Junior Big committee of Mrs. John Parkins, Mrs. John Palmer, Mrs. Roland Walton, Kelly Sundstrom, Reg Smith, Ed Sintz and Jim Roberts met Tuesday evening to discuss plans for continuing the organization this year. They made several recommendations to the PTA executive board.

These included that Edwin F. Kirbert of the Birmingham YMCA be in charge of the program this year; membership be limited to members of the fifth and sixth grades only; that parents of children take an active part in the chaperoning; that the student officers enforce discipline under the supervision of the chaperones; that a member who is sent home because of disorderly conduct be required to bring his parents to the next meeting he attends.

Final regulations will be read at the first meeting of Junior Big, at which time all parents will be present.

Local Happenings

The five delegates to the Birmingham PTA council, John Smith, John Woodman, Mrs. Philip Emrich, Mrs. John Parkins and Edson Stevens attended the meeting Monday evening at Baldwin high school and the first session of the special group for the study of the local Public school system as compared to others.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dingwall took her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Weeks, of Fort Scott, Kan., to Niagara Falls last weekend. They spent the rest of their visit here seeing the sights of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Scarlett of Redford township spent several days with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Snyder recently.

Allan Bennetts celebrated his sixth birthday this week with a party last week for several of her schoolmates.

Gaile Boyd gave a picnic supper for a group of her friends Monday at her school. They cooked hot-dogs and marshmallows outdoors, played games and did a little square-dancing.

Lynn Granger, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Granger held a square dance for 22 of her friends in the Granger barn last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Owen and their two sons, Sparky and Jeff have moved to Cass Lake Heights. Mr. and Mrs. John Vanek are living on Cass Lake. Mrs. Vanek is the former Polly Hanson.

Bridge Results

The Wednesday afternoon bridge club met this week at the home of Mrs. John Woodman for a luncheon meeting. Honors went to Mrs. Martin Wade and Mrs. William Bishop. The other winners are Mrs. R. C. Banker, Mrs. Frank Morton, Mrs. Roland Walton, Mr. Edward Sintz and Mrs. William Souclair.
