What's Being Planned By BIRMINGHAM CHURCHES

First Baptist

Thursday, Sept. 27, the MOMS club will hold its opening tea at the Baptist church. This event will be held in the church parlors. Members and friends of the MOMS are invited to attend. The new church directory has been printed and mailed to the membership. It contains the complete calendar for 1951-52; a full listing of the church membership, organizations and their leaders and the roster of the church officers for the year. The Women's Mission Union is cooperating in the program of the Council of Church Women to collect blankets and woolen material for coverlets. This will be gathered at a central place and dedicated in a formal service to be on World Community Day, Mrs. Raymond Morrow is chairman of the committee.

First Methodist

Members of the Girls World Friendship club will meet at the church house on Tuesday, Oct. 2 at 7:30 p.m. At present the girls are conducting a scavenger hunt

Presbyterian

Mrs. Fred Sage, 675 Larchlea, will open her home for the next meeting of the Sarah Hunter guild. The group will meet Thursday, Sept. 27 at 8 p.m. A membership tea will be held for the women of the church on Sept. 28, beginning at 8 p.m. Mrs. John S. Winttingham, 1155 West Union, will be hostess for the affair.

Kirk In The Hills

The church school will resume its fall schedule beginning Sunday, Sept. 30, dedicating service of the new curriculum materials will be held as a part of the Rally Day program.

Special Service To Mark Rally Day for Baptists

Rally Day will be noted in the First Baptist Church on Sunday at 9:45. Programs will be held in each department, including promotion of classes, awarding of Bibles and attendance pins. Lesson materials for teachers, parents and scholars for the next quarter will be distributed. Rally Day will also be the start of Christian Education week, held throughout the land in churches of many denominations. This emphasized in the church worship as well.

At 11 a.m. the congregation will witness the consecration service for officers and teachers of the church school.

The Rev. Emil Kontz, pastor of the church, will preach on "Moses Is Nobody", prepared especially for this occasion. The choir, under direction of Richard Burns, will provide timely anthems, with Mrs. David Mettly at the organ.

Church school officers are Mrs. C. H. Johnson, superintendent; Mrs. George Jackson, general secretary; Mrs. John Burket, literature secretary; Charles G. Thurston, adult chairman; Mrs. Emil Kontz, youth secretary; Mrs. Edith Johnson, children's chairman; Mrs. Frank Prouse, kindergarten superintendent; Mrs. June Thurston, junior department superintendent.

The board of Christian education is composed of Mrs. Rayburn Bonner, chairman; Mrs. Emil Kontz, Mrs. Clyde Collins, Mrs. Phillip W. Lett, Mrs. Duncan Hudson, Charles G. Thurston, and Mrs. Roland E. Erickson.

Photos must be submitted by noon each Friday to insure publication the following Thursday.

Lutheran Educational Building Cornerstone Ceremony On Sept. 30

Cornerstone ceremonies for the new Lutheran educational building at Redemer church, West Maple, are scheduled for 9:40 a.m. Sunday morning. The Rev. Theodore Wuggezer, pastor, will have charge of the program, which will include mass participation by members of the church school. Although definite plans are not yet completed, Mr. Wuggezer said someone from the children's class would be selected to place the box in the cornerstones. Church and church school documents, along with copies of The Birmingham Eccentric, will be included. He added that work on the building was progressing rapidly, but felt the opening would not be possible before early spring.

Bible Institute At Baptist Church Will Start Oct. 3

The first session of the annual Bible institute will be held in the First Baptist church on Wednesday, Oct. 3. The institute will be held each Wednesday in October, beginning with a supper at 6:30 p.m., for church families.

A nursery will be provided for small children with a story and craft hour for those old enough to participate. Young people and adults will meet together. The general topic will be the Book of Acts and will consist of a survey of the start and spread of the early church. Those attending will be presented with a 32-page edition of the Book of Acts. Both suppers and study courses are open to the public.
