JANET BAKER, now playing in "Over Twenty One" at the Will-O-Way Playhouse is a resident of Jackson, Mich. She is the winner of the Treasa Way Merrill apprentice scholarship which is given each summer to a daughter of a member of the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs. Janet received her B A degree in dramatics at the University of Michigan this past June. While at the University she appeared as the nurse in "Romeo and Juliet," played in "Papa Is All" and "Ladies In Retirement." She has also been active in modern dancing which she has studied for seven years. Out at Will-O-Way she has appeared in "I Like It Here" and portrayed several different parts in the Apprentice Theater Program given last Monday. Janet plans to do one theatrical and commercial film work in Detroit this fall. Will-O-Way will close this season on Sunday night, with this Ruth Gordon comedy. Reservations may be made by calling the box-office.

Base Tournament Closes Sept. 25

Local fishermen have until Sept. 25 to enter the Craig Sporting Goods store large-mouth bass tournament, according to Leo Renault, contest chairman.

Contest standings have remained the same since early summer. Harry Aten, 2935 Quanton road, is first with a five and one-quarter pound catch, while Robert Filkins, 440 Lakeside drive, is in runner-up spot with a four and one-half pound bass.

In third position is C. P. Kolosay, 1991 Birmingham boulevard, with a catch of a four and one-quarter pound bass. Final top three fishermen will receive prizes.
