Kid's Day Program Slated by Kiwanis

Birmingham Kiwanis president Ken Hoover said today that plans are being made by the local club for the observance of National Kid's Day Saturday, Sept. 22. Hundreds of communities in this country, Canada, Alaska and Hawaii will take part in the observance.

The event, Hoover said, is designed to attract more attention to the problems of underprivileged children and to raise funds for their aid.

"Plans for our part in the celebration are nearly completed," Hoover said. "Our program will be designed to provide material help to underprivileged youth in our jurisdiction."

Hoover explained that Kiwanis International has been active in youth work for 36 years. In 1900 its clubs furnished 276,688 lunches for needy children. Proceeds of Kid's Day activities last year totaled $277,218.

Progress Report Of Plan Group on Southfield Agenda

Progress made by Southfield township's planning commission, since its formation last winter, will be discussed at the township board meeting, Tuesday, Sept. 11.

A representative of the planning group has been asked to appear at the meeting to make a report. This action was taken after the township board received a list of recommendations from the plan commission.

Before approval is given the request, the township board members desire to know what the planners have done previously.
