Birmingham Exchange members met Tuesday noon in the new high school and after a cafeteria luncheon, were conducted through the building by Assistant Principal Larned Goodrich.

Junior Exchanges for the month are Marc Joslyn and Russell Sanders.

You haven't got that much?

Too bad. Then they may attach your property—or even your income for years to come.

People sue for more, these days. That's true in case of automobile injuries and deaths, and for other accidents for which you may be liable.

But the comforting thing is, it costs surprisingly little to carry an America Fore policy to protect yourself against loss from damage suits. And it costs only a little more to cover yourself PLENTY while you're at it.

This is serious. Check with us on the cost of carrying liability limits high enough to give you COMPLETE protection.

YMCA Teams Lose In Detroit Play

Both St. James Episcopal church and First Presbyterian church were eliminated in the Metropolitan Detroit Y.M.C.A. Church basketball tournament this past week.

After defeating Westlawn Methodist by a 39 to 37 score in a game which involved two overtime periods, St. James met a superior First Presbyterian church of Royal Oak five to lose 61 to 38 in the semi-final round of the Intermediate 'A' Division.

ALTHOUGH Bill Leckie netted 14 points and Bud DeLoria 12, the locals could not stop the basket shooting of Jim Luppenitis who scored a total of 23 points before leaving the game late in the fourth quarter.

First Presbyterian church lost 57 to 40 against a fast breaking Nardin Park five in the quarter finals of Intermediate 'B' Division. Both teams had impressive records in the local 'Y' league and made an excellent showing in the Detroit 'Y' tournament.

Obituary Notices

DAVID T. LITTLE, 49, of 1123 North Campbell, Royal Oak, died at his residence Sunday morning.

A former resident of Birmingham, he had lived in Royal Oak for three years.

Mr. Little was born in St. Thomas, Ont., on May 10, 1910, and had been a sales and service representative for the Metropolitan Typewriter company. He was president of the First Spiritual Temple of Royal Oak.

Besides his widow, Dorothy, he is survived by two children, Marie and Effie, at home; two brothers, George Little of Milwaukee and Charles Little of Detroit. Three sisters, Miss Marian Little of Detroit and Mrs. William Bortels and Mrs. George Sagen, both of Birmingham, also survive.

Services were held from the Royal Oak chapel of the Spiller funeral home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Elsie Beasley of the Spiritual Temple officiated. Burial was in Oakview cemetery.

MRS. GEORGE (INEZ) HEI-BECK, 66, died Friday at St. John's, Mich., just one month after moving her home here on Ann street.

native of Blair, Mich., Mrs. Heibek was a resident of Birmingham for more than 25 years. She was a member of the First Baptist church here.

Besides her husband she is survived by a son, Grant and daughter, Mrs. Otto Nyland, both of California; one grandchild and two sisters, Mrs. Fred E. Hubbard of Oxford and Mrs. Arthur Chase of Ionia.

Services were Wednesday from the Osgood funeral home in St. Johns with burial in Grand Plains cemetery near Ionia.

EDWARD W. KREG, 77, of 2300 West Long Lake road, was buried in Greenhill cemetery, Kingsville, Ont., Monday, following services at the William R. Hamilton-company chapel in Detroit.

Mr. Kreg died April 4 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jack Henderson, where he had made his home for the past two years.

He was born in Erbsville, Ont., on July 18, 1874, and attended Guelph, Ont., college. For 50 years he was a resident of Detroit.

working as an accountant and auditor for the General Baking company, formerly known as the Morton Baking company.

Residing in Hazelton he is survived by a son, Edward M. Kreg of Detroit; one grandchild; two brothers, Allen Kreg of Winnipeg and Charles Kreg of Armada and three sisters, Mrs. Emma Morley and the Misses Elizabeth and Marian Kreg, all of Ottawa.

AUREY A. SMITH, 81, of 687 Southfield, died at his residence April 4, following a long illness.

He was born in Reelford on Aug. 8, 1870 and came to Birmingham as a child. He attended the local schools and later opened a meat market here, still being operated by members of his family.

He was a member of the First Methodist church of Birmingham. Surviving are two sons, Lloyd H. and Merrill A.; two grandchildren, one great grandchild, and a sister, Mrs. Frank Simpson, all of Birmingham.

Services were held Monday afternoon from Bell chapel of the William R. Hamilton company with burial in White Chapel cemetery. The Rev. Dr. Arnold F. Runkel of the First Methodist church officiated.

St. James Repeats In Church League

Scoring two victories in five days gave St. James Episcopal Church its second trophy and championship in the local Y.M.C.A. Church league.

Their victims were Lathrup Township Church who was on the short end of a 45 to 44 score and First Methodist Church which dropped a 56 to 46 decision.

In both contests, St. James raked up early leads and then without late scoring sprays by their opponents to emerge victors.

IN BOTH GAMES scoring honors were taken by Bud DeLoria with 23 and 20 points each. This gave him the scoring championship with an average better than 20 points per game.

The win assured St. James Episcopal Church of retention of its championship and added two trophies to its growing collection.

Members of the championship five were Bud DeLoria, Bill Leckie, Jack Kirby, Bill Davidson, Jack Goodman, Russ Sanders, Lance Minor and Harold Geiger, coach and manager.

Former Minister Of Baptist Church Dies At Home Here

The Rev. Peter Morrison MacKay, former pastor of the First Baptist church of Birmingham, died at his home, 447 Hanna, Sunday morning after a long illness.

Mr. MacKay was born in Aberdeen, Scotland, on Nov. 17, 1870 and came to this country as a young man. He was married to Margaret Piper in Kalamazoo in 1897.

He attended Kalamazoo college, Brown university and the Newton Theological seminary in Newton, Mass., and served as pastor of the Baptist church here from 1915 to 1925.

In 1925 he assumed the pastorate of the Broadway Baptist church in Cleveland, later going to the First Baptist church at Conneaut, Ohio. He retired from the ministry in 1947 and returned to Birmingham in 1952 to make his home.

HE WAS a member of Birmingham Lodge 44, P.E.M.U. and was a 32nd degree Mason and member of the Scottish Rite bodies of Detroit.

Mr. MacKay is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Leland Bunyan of Waterford, at the John P. MacKay of Birmingham; four sisters, Mrs. John Armstrong, Mrs. William Springer, Mrs. Mrs. Torrey and Mrs. Mary Henderson, all of Detroit and a brother, Arthur MacKay of Bay City, Michigan.

Services were held Tuesday, in charge of the Stanley Bailey funeral home, at the First Baptist church with the Rev. Emil Kott officiating. Masonic ritualistic services were observed in White Chapel cemetery.

Birmingham Man Questioned After Crash Victim Dies

James Young, 24, Royal Oak township youth who was in collision with a car driven by Barton D. Shuman, 2897 Yorkshire, while riding a motorcycle on Fourteen-Mile road and John R. Tuesday, April 1, died at St. Joseph's Mercy hospital, Pontiac, Sunday morning.

Shuman has been questioned by Assistant Prosecutor Donald A. Plankel but no action can be taken on the case until a remaining witness can be questioned, Plankel said.

Miss Joan McCauley, 19, passenger on Young's motorcycle at the time of the accident remains at the Pontiac hospital where her condition was described as "good" by hospital authorities.

Auto Dealers Outlast All-Stars

Birmingham Auto Dealers came from behind to down North Chevrolet All-Stars 48 to 45 to win the play-off trophy of the local Y.M.C.A. Intramural basketball league. The win was the second within the past week for the Green and White quintet and avenged a 48 to 47 loss last Thursday.

Auto Dealers trailed 9 to 7 at the quarter but managed to work Bud Brown and Joe Anderson free in the second quarter and they scored 18 points to give their team a 28 to 17 half-time lead.

North Chevrolet came back in the third period to roll up 24 points as Jack Pfeister and Earl Judge scored repeatedly to take over the lead.

midway through the fourth period when North Chevrolet's Jack Pfeister fouled out and no substitutions were available. His loss and the absence of Don Little spelled defeat as Auto Dealers went on to win.

Bud Brown of Auto Dealers and Jack Pfeister shared honors with 14 points each. This final game climaxed a schedule that started last December and went into the final week before a champion was determined.

Members of the Auto Dealers who won both the regular season and play-off trophies were Bud Brown, Joe Anderson, Don Pfeister, Don Raster, Jim Hawkins, Bill Layman, Walter Allison and Jack Tobin.

THE SCORE was tied at 41 all

TIME FOR A DELIGHTFUL New Spring Suit

Unless it's robins singing in your yard, nothing gives you quite such a boost as a new Spring suit. Winter has gone—at last. Now come the balmy days of Spring, with occasional chilly winds—the ideal weather for suits.

The Village Store has a grand collection of fine, all-weather suits you can wear right up to the time someone is nominated for President. The grace of lines, the excellence of the tailoring, makes every suit a genuine bargain in its class.

We have yet to see a lady who didn't thrill at the beauty of our Beecroft suits. They are as finely tailored as you'll find, of magnificently soft shetland tweeds—mostly from Scotland. The colors are exquisitely muted in the loveliest of hues. These suits are for the really well-dressed woman, and are priced at $110 and $115.

Silk Shantung suits—always a favorite in the Springtime—have been made by Henry Rosenfeld for the astonishing price of $27.95.

Summer weight suits, in pastel tones, start as low as $14.95. So don't wait too long; make your selection while you have a big choice. Come today to the Village Store to see your new Spring suit.
