

LAST MINUTE DETAILS are discussed as Birmingham Christ Child Society members prepare for their Tea Dance, to be held at Bloomfield Hills Country Club Saturday afternoon. Checking plans are, from left to right, Mrs. John Annas, Mrs. Richard Ruen and Mrs. William Miller.

Tag Day Plans Set Saturday

Foremost in the minds of Birmingham members of Moms of America, unit 3, are plans for their annual Tag Day, to be held this year Saturday, April 26. Moms will be soliciting funds to carry on their work at the Veterans Hospital and their social service work.

Details will be worked out at the next monthly meeting, eight o'clock Thursday evening, April 17, at the home of Mrs. East Sheley, Riverside Drive, Beverly Hills.

The entire evening will be devoted to preparing tags, posters and canisters.

Any member or friend of the Moms having men's old ties or odd scraps of yarn are asked to bring them to the meeting or contact Mrs. Edwin Snyder of Colonial Court.

The Moms urge all members to attend the April meeting.

Pediatrician To Address AAUW Child Study Club

"The Perplexities a Young Mother Encounters With Her Offspring" will be the subject of a talk to be given by Dr. Robert E. Johnson before the AAUW Child Study Club.

Dr. Johnson, local pediatrician, will speak at the Baldwin Public Library at eight o'clock Tuesday evening, April 15. A question and answer period will follow.

Dr. Johnson, a member of the Kemp clinic, is a graduate of Indiana University Medical School. He received his pediatric training at the Memorial Hospital of South Bend, Rochester General Hospital, Rochester, N. Y., and Children's Hospital, Detroit.

A courteous and helpful person will help you write a Classified Ad for publication in The Eccentric. Just call her at Midwest 4-1100.

SOCIAL NEWS IN BRIEF

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Gross returned Wednesday from a two-week visit to Albuquerque, N. M.

Mrs. J. R. Adams of Rathmor road, Bloomfield Hills, has returned from her Ft. Lauderdale home where she spent the past two months. While there, she was visited by her daughter and family, Mrs. R. J. Heckenkamp of Birmingham, and another daughter, Ellen Ann, who spent her Spring vacation from Northwestern University. Mr. Adams was down for two short visits.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hoge of Avon Lane recently returned from a four-week trip to the West Coast. En route they were the guests of Mrs. Orion Burkhardt and her daughter Ann of Kirkwood, Mo. They also spent a weekend with their son Wilmer who is at present making his home in Tulsa, Okla.

Shalling April 26 on the Caronia from New York is Mrs. Thomas Robert Walton. Mrs. Walton will be accompanied by Mrs. H. E. Butcher of Toledo. While abroad, Mrs. Walton and Mrs. Butcher will visit twelve countries.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Hoover are home from an 8,500 mile motor trip through the West and Southwest. Gone for two and a half months, their itinerary included three weeks in Hot Springs, Ark., and visits with Mrs. Hoover's sisters, Mrs. Arnold Chamberlain and her husband in San Diego, Cal.; Mrs. Lillian Thomas of Los Angeles, and Mrs. John Petchon and her husband in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Braisted have returned from a month's stay in Palm Beach, Fla.

Mrs. Ben Ruhl of Puritan road returned Monday from spending two months at Venice, Fla. With her were her two daughters, Gretchen and Kathi. Mr. Ruhl spent the first six weeks in Florida. Visiting Mrs. Ruhl for the last three weeks of her stay was her daughter, Mrs. James Edwards of Birmingham who was accompanied by her son Steve. Mrs. Ruhl left Tuesday for a week's visit with another daughter, Mrs. James Bennett of Joliet, Ill.

Dr. Hans Gruber, conductor of the Victoria, British-Columbia Symphony Orchestra has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fenton R. Mathews of Brown street for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice H. Smith of Bennaville street are making the trip to Flushing, Mich., Sunday for the Golden Wedding celebration of Mr. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith. The senior Smiths were married in Marion, Mich., in 1902, and have been residents of Flushing for most of their married life. They have four children, six grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland J. Nelson of West Lincoln road will have for their guest this week Mrs. Nelson's brother, Roy A. Dean and his ten-year-old son, Howard. Mr. Dean, with the Coca-Cola Export division, spends most of his time in Japan and Manila.

Mrs. Charles Shain of Pierce street left by plane Wednesday for Minneapolis where she will spend Easter with her niece, Hilda Edger. Mrs. Shain will return Monday.

EVERYTHING YOU'VE Been Looking For!

An attractive brick home . . . about 2 acres of land . . . just outside the Birmingham city limits . . . room for a horse or two and some dogs . . . school bus nearby for the youngsters . . . are you one of the many who have been looking for just this? We've just found it . . . we know you'll like it!

First Floor:
Large Living and Dining Rooms . . . glassed TV room or Den . . . Bedroom and adjoining lavatory . . . Breakfast Room and Kitchen. Spacious rooms . . . sunny and cheerful.

Second Floor:
3 spacious Bedrooms . . . (each is 20 feet long) . . . and a tiled bath . . . extra storage room, insulated and air conditioned. Full basement . . . dry and clean . . . Play room (31 feet long) . . . Laundry and utility room.

The grounds are beautiful . . . tall trees and mature planting . . . plenty of garden and bordering beds . . . a vineyard. Small tool barn 2 1/2 acres . . . (there's more available if you want it). School bus only a step away for Birmingham Schools. The price will please you. It has everything . . . let's see it right now!

CALL
MAX BROOCK INC.
REALTORS
ESTABLISHED 1899
300 S. Woodward Ave. Midwest 4-6700

The Shell Bonnet
levels-off a-top your poodle cut
Crisp milan-like straw, shiny and edged with rich velvet . . . to perch firmly on your close-clipped coiffure. Navy, black, white or natural, with a face-sheathing veil that ties in back.

7.95
MILLINERY STREET LEVEL

Jacobson's
Maple at Bates Birmingham

Soloist . . . top braid, important shining accent on Crescendo's new hand-slimming short glove, distinguished for its oblique line seam and vent which opens to show a pretty wrist. Leather-tailored of wonder fabric that is doorkn-like in look and feel, and retains its shape marvelously washing after washing. 3.50

Crescendo
GLOVES by Esquid

Jacobson's
Maple at Bates Birmingham

Jacobson's
Maple at Bates Birmingham

OUR 100% WOOL PEBBLE TWIST POODLE POP COAT
29.95

Yellow, beige, white, red . . . true rich colors in wonderful pebble twist, at a price to make you want several to pop over everything in your wardrobe . . . evening and daytime, in city and country, over full skirts and slim. For fashion's sake, a rhinestone stick pin, full turn-back cuffs and a flare back. Sizes 7 to 15, 8 to 18.

COAT SALON STREET LEVEL

Our Genuine Cobra Co-ordinates

in an array of paint-can fresh spring colors deftly created by PALIZZIO

Chartreuse, purple, chalk pink or beige . . . beautiful polished colors to add life and lilt to your spring costumes. Designed and crafted in the Palizzio tradition, the sling pumps and matching bag are handsome co-ordinates for spring.

Pumps, 20.95 Handbags, $15 plus tax
SHOE SALON STREET LEVEL

Jacobson's
Maple at Bates Birmingham

Newcomers Plan An Active April

Newcomers to Birmingham within the last three years can circulate three dates on their calendars, for a mixer, a luncheon, and a telephone bridge are all on the Newcomers' Club April agenda.

The monthly mixer party has been scheduled for Thursday evening, April 10, in the Community House Ranch Room. Dancing and cards will begin at eight o'clock.

The regular luncheon will take place at the Community House at 12:30 p.m. Thursday, April 17. Bruce Bradshaw, a representative of a Detroit department store, will speak on Interior Decorating, using display materials.

Tuesday evening, April 22, is the date selected for the Newcomers' Telephone Bridge and Canasta, which will be played in various homes with results published in a central point. Prizes will be awarded.

Anyone interested in forming a table is asked to contact Mrs. Robert Diegel of Villa road, chairman of the event. Proceeds will go to the Community House fund.