VENTURE CLUB MEMBERS RECEIVE CHARTER AT DINNER
Patricia Williams, Edith Foster, Frances B. Love, Ruth Smith, Rosemary Foote.

Receives Charter at Venture Club Dinner

Rosemary Foote became the first president of the newly-organized Venture Club of Birmingham at a dinner Saturday, April 4, at Devon Hall.

Sixteen young business and professional women became charter members of this service group which is sponsored by the Birmingham branch of the Soroptimist Club.

Other officers are Marion Fleming, vice-president; Carolyn Cole, recording secretary; M. A. G. a r e t Polley, corresponding secretary; and Marguerite Williams, treasurer.

Named to the board were Neida Mae Smith and Susan Wendell. Charter members include Beth M. Abbott, Marilyn Bergz, Betty Jean Clark, Margaret E. Dineley, Vilma L. Keogh, Barbara Kinney, Frances B. Love, Noreen Moloney and Ruth Smith.

EDITH FOSTER, president of the Birmingham Soroptimist Club, presented the Venturists with their charter. Nina Allright Noble, Soroptimist chairman in charge of the Venturist Club, was toastmistress.

Patricia Wiggins, director of the Midwestern region of Venture Clubs, presided over the installation of officers and members.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Paul Shippert, pastor of Our Church of the Ascension.

Greetings came from Mayor Dean Beier, and also from Louise Meek and Marjorie O'Brien, secretary and treasurer of the Midwestern region of Venture Clubs.

Georgia G. Mitchell, secretary, treasurer of the American Council on Venturism.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Catherine Cleveland Lockwood to Francis Sherwood Tanzer has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick St. John Lockwood Jr., of North Eton road.

Miss Lockwood is a graduate of the Flower-Fifth Avenue School of Nursing and Syracuse University where she was affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega. She is now an Oakland County Public Health nurse. Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Tanzer of Utica, N. Y., is a graduate of Syracuse University where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. He is now attending Georgetown School of Dentistry. No date has been set for the wedding.
