Oberlin Chapel Scene of Lancashire-Scott Rites

Sara Jane Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford Scott of Kennesaw road, became the bride of Ben John Lancashire, USAF, at 3:30 Saturday afternoon in Fairchild Chapel, Oberlin, Ohio.

Dr. A. W. Wishart of the First Presbyterian Church, Warren, Ohio, performed the double-ring ceremony.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Lancashire of Lakeland, Fla., is on leave from Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama.

THE BRIDAL GOWN was of white satin, fashioned with a redingote buttoned over imparted point d'esprit lace with detailed ruffling on the bodice and skirt. Her fingertip illusion veil was worn with a cap of heirloom rosepoint from her grandmother's wedding dress. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and ivy, centered with white roses.

The bride's honor attendant was Marilyn Landis of Worthington, Ohio. Bridesmaids were Carol Smetson of Birmingham, Esther Smart of Columbus, Ohio, and Sara Wilson of Wellington, Ohio.

All wore ballerina length gowns of aqua nylon tulle and lace with matching lace jackets. Their aqua mesh hats were trimmed with tallman roses.

Their cascade bouquets were of tallman roses surrounded by daffodils and white ivy.

OBERLIN CLASSMATES Joan

Gove of Birmingham, and the bride's uncle, S. N. Park of Dayton, Ohio, were soloists at the service.

The groom's brother, Robert F. Lancashire, came from Memphis, Tenn., to be best man.

Another brother of the groom, James E. Lancashire, the bride's brother, John R. Scott, and Benjamin Mercer of Canton, Ohio, completed the wedding party.

Mrs. Scott chose a gown of French blue lace on taffeta with matching shoes for her daughter's wedding. She wore a pink hat and a matching camellia corsage.

The groom's mother was in a dark crepe dress fashioned with short sleeves edged with net. She wore a white iris corsage.

A BUFFET SUPPER at the Oberlin Inn followed the ceremony.

The bride's going-away outfit was a beige wool suit and blending wool topcoat, with dark brown hat, purse and shoes.

After a brief wedding trip to Indianapolis where the groom will attend Army Finance School, the bride will resume her studies at Oberlin College. Following her graduation in June, the couple will make their home at Maxwell Air Force Base, Ala.
