News About GIRL SCOUTS

Brownie Troop 68—Adams School
Brownie Troop 68 met at the home of Mrs. Howard Hallas, Tuesday afternoon, April 8, to dye Easter eggs and have an egg hunt. Fourteen girls attended. Mrs. Fred Steffens and Mrs. Hallas, leaders, served Bunny-centered ice cream slices, and Sally Ryden, hostess for the day, brought cookies cut in the shape of rabbits and eggs for nibbles. The table was decorated with an Easter paper cloth and a gayly colored birdhouse center-piece filled with candy eggs.

Winners of the egg-hunt were Susan Lewis, Betsy Quinn, Sally Ryden, Susan Hallas and Judy Lucas.
The next meeting of the troop will be after Easter vacation on April 22. Dolly Bowers will be hostess to help celebrate her birthday.

IT'S SPRING PLANTING TIME and Mrs. William Burlingame, noted horticulturist, will give her annual course in gardening. The six-week series of classes will begin this evening at the Community House, and will provide novice and experienced gardeners alike with valuable tips and short-cuts in the planting and care of reasonable plants and shrubs. Class hours are from 8 until 10 p.m. Registration is still open.
