The kindergarten children made Easter baskets and colored eggs and made bookmarks for their mothers.
 The second grade children made baskets and colored eggs for Easter.
 The sixth grade won the paper drive. They made designs in art class to put on their Easter eggs and sang songs while doing it.
 At the assembly Thursday morning the awards were given out from the magazine sale.
 Mr. Arnold Berndt and Paul Miller of the Music department are planning the program for the PTA meeting Monday evening. The children will take part to show the approach to the subject used in our schools today. The members of the third grade will sing and play on their trombones. The glee club and the orchestra will be a part of the demonstration. The fourth grade made the PTA invitations.

Former Resident Given Commission

Lt. Commander Ellen Ford, daughter of Mrs. Eleanor Ford, former residents of Birmingham, now living in Wilmington, Del., received her commission in the WAVES in March.
 Commander Ford is a graduate of Birmingham high school and Cornell University. and taught them the International Girl Guide song and several songs which girls in Scout and Guide Troops in other countries sing. They especially liked a song from Mexico and one from the Netherlands. Troop 221 took money from their treasury to buy Easter baskets and candies. They filled the baskets and delivered them to the Elizabeth Kenny Polio Hospital near Pontiac. Bonnie Braund was hostess at the last troop meeting.

SHOPPERS LOOKING FRANTICALLY for a place to park in Birmingham's business district were given a pleasant surprise last week when the Wabek Corporation stationed guard George Porter, 1259 Bird, at the entrance to the parking lot at the rear of the Wabek building. Porter takes his stand daily, protecting the lot from all-day parkers who have deprived the space from shoppers in the past.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE SCHOOL NEWS

Kindergarten news—We made Easter baskets, bunnies and Easter bonnets for Eleanor, Bobby Stevenson is going to Virginia during spring vacation.
 First grade news—Sandra Lee Eakins is our room reporter for this week. We colored Easter eggs. Our teacher, Mrs. Ayers, took us to visit Bella Flower shop. Several of the children are going away during Easter vacation. Jennie Yoker and Janie Michaels will be in Florida. Bobby Gantler is going to Washington, D.C. Penny Jackson is visiting in North Carolina and Robbie Couch will be to Muskogee.

Third and fourth grade news—Judy Helgeson is reporter for this week. The other officers in our room are: President, Lucy Bowen; vice president, Mary Gillen; and secretary, Bonnie Cartwright. Billy Purdy has returned from a visit in Illinois. We are making plans for our part in the school talent show.

FOURTH AND FIFTH GRADE news—Our officers are: president, Virginia Huntton; vice president, Jane Wilson; and secretary, Jean Caldwell. Jane Wilson back from a long vacation in Florida. The children who come to school on the bus gave Walt Edwards, their bus driver, an Easter present. Our class is busily rehearsing for the school talent show to be given May 2. The theme of the show is to be "The Wild West" and our class is planning a skit about a dude ranch.

Sixth grade news—We had an election Monday, April 7. The presidents are Howie Davis and Dolores Schrey, secretary is Susie Riddell, reporter is Bill Cartwright, sheriffs are Carol Wallkainen and Preston Smith, Jeff Crawford is taking care of the plants and animals and Howie Davis and Bonnie Braund are in charge of the book shelves. On Monday, our rat, Count Sylvester, tried to unsuccessfully to escape.

MR. CRANDALL SAID he was getting smart so we had to get new and heavier weights to keep him in his cage. We have lots of fun with Count Sylvester. We take turns in caring for him and weighing him. We have been making military charts and graphs showing his weekly weight. We weigh him on Wednesday. We find that he grows and gains weight on a good diet with milk and he loses on a bad diet. Our conclusions are that you need milk for a good diet. We are visiting all the rooms in the school and telling the students our story about Count Sylvester. Bill Cartwright is keeping Count Sylvester at his home during spring vacation.

SOME OF OUR CLASSMATES are going on trips during spring vacation. Mary Slater is visiting her grandmother in North Carolina. Pat Henry is still in Fort Lauderdale, Florida and Carol Green is going to Chicago. While there she plans to visit the Field museum. Emily Haugen is back from Florida. While there, she visited Jane Wilson at Miami Beach. She also visited the Ringling museum at Sarasota.
 Winner of the garden week poster contest was Penny Greer, who won a flowering cherry, an apple tree, Honorable mention went to Bonnie Braund, Jeff Crawford and Judy Selvidge.

THE FROG EGGS which we collected on our field trip, which hatched into pollywogs but they did not survive. We have two salamanders and one of them laid eggs. We all hope they will hatch because we would like to see a baby salamander. Our salamanders spend most of their time under the mud in our terrarium. Our Spring Peepers, also spend most of their time under the mud. They burrow so far under the mud that we cannot find them. If we want to hear or see them we have to stay very quietly a ways away from them. We caught one of them trying to eat some of the moss.

THE GIRLS IN Girl Scout Troop 321 have finished their badge. World Trefall, Mrs. Gerald Vanek came to their last meeting.
