Alpha Chi Omega Card Party Will Aid Palsy Fund

Alpha Chi Omega's annual benefit for children with cerebral palsy will be given this year at the home of Mrs. George H. Heide-man, 445 Henley Drive.

The event, sponsored by the Alpha Omega Alpha chapter which is composed of Birmingham, Royal Oak and Pontiac alumnae, is planned for eight o'clock, Tuesday evening, April 22.

National Alpha Chi Omega funds support scholarships for training therapists and other skilled persons to work with afflicted children.

The proceeds of last year's bridge and kanasta parties went for equipment for the Cerebral Palsy division of the Detroit Orthopedic Clinic.

Mrs. William H. Anger, Jr. of Royal Oak is chairman of this year's event. Those assisting her are localites Mrs. E. J. Martin, Jr., Mrs. John S. Cross, Jr., and Mrs. Hollis P. Halliday.

Handling tickets, reservations and contributions are Mrs. Arthur Land, Mrs. Walter H. Wakeman, Mrs. James Severy and Mrs. Milo Bostwick.

ANOTHER IMPORTANT event for Alpha Chi Omega members is State Day, which will be held April 26 at Battle Creek.

Washington Honeymoon For Mr. and Mrs. Gregory, Jr.

Washington, D.C. was the destination of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Franklin Gregory, Jr., following their April 12, nuptials.

The couple were wed at eight o'clock Saturday evening before the Rev. Arnold F. Bunkle at the Strathmoor Methodist Church.

The bride is the former Jeanne Marion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Eugene Marion of Rosedale Park. Mr. and Mrs. Amos Franklin Gregory of Dorchester road are the parents of the groom.

Chantilly lace and nylon net over slipper satin formed the wedding gown. The bride's Juliet cap was fashioned from satin and net and pearls, and held a wrist-length nylon veil.

She carried a white orchid arranged by white carnations.

Honor attendant Sylvia Ann Morris wore pale aqua nylon net over a matching shade of taffeta. Bridesmaid Patricia Chronch, Mary Lou Gregory and Jean Bengel were in pale yellow nylon net over yellow taffeta. Spring colonial bouquets were carried by all the attendants.

THE BEST MAN was Neil McCue. Ushers Richard Lewis, Bernard Brogan, Edward Dawey, Frank Allen and Charles Hood completed the wedding party. For her daughter's nuptials and

Miss Ekelund Engaged to Bruce Smith

Guests arriving at the Ottawa Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., were greeted with the news of the engagement of their daughter, Georgia Katherine.

Dodie, as the bride-elect is better known, and Bruce Smith are planning a summer wedding. Bruce is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wellington Smith of Franklin.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the Shirley School of Bryn Mawr, Pa., and is finishing her second year at Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia.

Her fiancé graduated from Cranbrook School and attended Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., where he was a member of St. Anthony's Society. Until recently he has been stationed at Lake Field, Phoenix, Ariz., with the Air Force.

Localites Will Be Heard In B'ham Artists Concert

Among the local highlights of National Music Week, May 4-11, will be the Birmingham Artists Concert on May 6.

The public is invited to the event which will be held at the Community House at 8 p.m.

Starting off the program will be a violin and piano arrangement of Handel's Sonata No. 4. D Major, played by Jean and William Holmeyer.

G. Thomas Hartle, a member of the Michigan Composer's Club, will direct the Orchard Lake Community Church Choir in two of his own compositions, "Remember Thou the Sabbath Day" and "Hear Thou My Voice."

The words have been arranged by Grace Kahala.

A. B. GRIMES, also a member of the Michigan Composer's Club, will accompany the piano her suite for woodwinds and piano.

Performing the numbers will be two members of the Scandinavian Symphony, Paul Hielt, bassoon; Samuel Howell, oboe; and William Henry, head of music at Brookside, who will play the flute.

The string trio of Sandra Bernat, violin; Marjorie Bernat, cello; and Samuel Bernat, viola; will play Dohnanyi's "Serenade" and the presto from Beethoven's opus 9.

A two piano arrangement of the first movement of Rachmaninov's First Concerto will be played by the Maud Skinner and Janet Wherry Martin.

FOLLOWING INTERMISSION, Dorothy and John Phelps will play an organ and piano arrangement of Mr. Phelps' Concerto No. 1 in D Minor, "Fantasie" and a miniature piano concerto.

Phelps is president of the Michigan Composers' Club.

Piano arrangements of Schumann's "Romance" in F# Major, Poulenc's "Perpetual Motion" and Chopin's "Vals in E Minor" will be played by Paul Fankotant and Mary Gardner Pardee who present a group of art songs.

Phelps is president of the Michigan Composers' Club.

Directed by Dr. Leslie R. Bell of the University of Toronto, this ensemble has attained an accuracy of tonal balance and accuracy of intonation, and have opened new fields in the concert repertoire.

Grace Crain Weds Robert Harpster

Gleah Grace Crain became the bride of Robert E. Harpster at an April 5 ceremony in the Highland Park Methodist Church.

The new Mrs. Harpster is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Crain of Royal Oak. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest P. Harpster of Pembroke road.

The bride's only attendant was Mary Lou Morris. Jack Morris was the best man.

After a wedding trip in Northern Michigan, the groom left for San Diego, Cal., to enter the Marine Corps. Mrs. Harpster is making her home with her parents.

Community Concert Artists Named

Scheduled for December 1 is William Warfield, baritone, who has a record in MCH's "Show Boat". He has appeared as soloist with major symphonies as well as on radio and television.

Another artist scheduled is the young Austrian pianist, Paul Burs-Skoda.

Carol Smith, contralto, is equally at home in opera, oratorio, concert and recital. The National Federation of Music Clubs sponsored her New York recital debut last year.

Another HIGHLIGHT of the coming season will be the St. Louis Sinfonietta, an ensemble of 22 musicians, all members of the St. Louis Symphony.

This group, under the direction of Paul Schreier, offers authoritative readings of complete classic symphonies as well as colorful interpretations of the impressionistic composers.

Further details and dates for the series will be announced later. As in the past, the concerts will be held in the auditorium of the Royal Oak High School.

ARTISTS SELECTED for the 1952-53 season include the Leslie Bell Singers, a group of 32 women who have become known as "the voice of Canada".

Directed by Dr. Leslie R. Bell of the University of Toronto, this ensemble has attained an accuracy of tonal balance and accuracy of intonation, and have opened new fields in the concert repertoire.

With the closing of the 1951-52 Community Concert Series, plans are already being made for next year's season. At the same time, it has been announced that the fifth annual campaign which recently closed was nearly a sell-out.

The executive board and board of directors of the Community Concerts Association of Southern Oakland County met at the Royal Oak home of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Sullivan last Saturday evening.

Mr. Sullivan, campaign chairman, and Mrs. Douglas Moore, president, expressed their appreciation of the cooperation of those working on behalf of the drive.
