Birmingham Man Heads Detroit's Observance Of Armed Forces' Day

Plans for "Operation Crusade," a part of Detroit's Armed Forces observance on May 17, are going forward under the direction of Robert L. Biggers, 8 Old Salem court.

Biggers said last week that the organization of committees would be completed shortly with representatives from industry, labor, business and civic life asked to serve.

He listed four objectives to be stressed in the day-long program to include the testing of Detroit's military and civilian defenses against air and ground attacks; demonstration of the latest equipment of air, ground and sea forces; quickening of civilian interest in security measures and the collection of blood for the Korean wounded.

Church Business Is Big; Minister Tells Rotary Club

"The Business of the Church" was the topic of the Rev. Emil Kontz, Baptist minister and guest speaker at the Monday meeting of the Birmingham Rotary club.

Church Business Is a Marvelous Business

He said that in the United States during the past 25 years, church memberships have increased about 50 per cent as compared to a 35 per cent increase in the national population.

"THE CHURCHES must enable you and me to look out upon our world with a new spirit and will of God. People today know too well how to make money but they don't know how to make a real life."
