'Rummage-With-A-Future'
 Time Again at Christ Church

It's "Rummage-With-A-Future" time again at Christ Church Cranbrook, and members of the Women's Auxiliary have been deep in boxes, sorting and classifying an untold number of mysterious items for the April 24 sale.

Those arriving at the Church House on Lone Pine road from ten to three o'clock this afternoon will be able to browse through a "treasure trove" of china, glass, and silver.

One can find clothing for men, women, and children of all ages; hats, bags, jewelry, toys, play equipment and household furnishings.

In fact, there is such a variety of "rummage-with-a-future" that the entire church house has been turned over to the event, with separate rooms for different types of merchandise. Special provisions have been made for check-room facilities.

Mrs. IRVING MacKENZIE, acting president of the Women's Auxiliary, Mrs. Richard Wagner, chairman, and Mrs. Roy Stringer, vice-chairman, head the list of those active in the sale.

Assisting chairmen include Mrs. James Bragoy, Mrs. Fred Sanders, Mrs. Aaron Webster, Mrs. Morell Marwan, Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. J. Beall, Mrs. George Hodges, Mrs. Vernon Genn, Mrs. George Dalton and Mrs. Myron Snyder.

Others who have been busy unpacking and sorting for the past few weeks are Mrs. F. W. Prince, Mrs. Carl Underhill, Mrs. Paul Scott, Mrs. Carl Meyer, Mrs. Howard Stegall, Mrs. Bruce Dodds, Miss Barbara Mose, Mrs. E. W. Bruhn, Mrs. Arthur Jordan, Mrs. Ormond Weasels, Mrs. W. H. Hoge and Mrs. Harold Holmes.

Proceeds will go to social service activities.

April Showers Ahead For Spring Brides

The thought of April showers to local Spring brides is not associated with umbrellas and coming May flowers, but rather with ribbons, wrapping paper and thoughts of approaching nuptials.

Closest to her wedding date is Betty Lee Hamilton who will stand at the altar of Christ Church Cranbrook Saturday evening to repeat her vows with Carlton C. Patterson, Jr.

A reception will follow in the Lone Pine road home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrington G. Hamilton.

Showers for Betty include an April 5 miscellaneous shower at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club hosted by Virginia Austerberry. April 15 was the date selected by Mrs. Edwin Foyes and Mrs. Robert Moffat for their kitchen shower at the Detroit Yacht Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter C. Higbie entertained in honor of the couple at a dinner party and surprise shower April 16. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Booth chose Saturday evening for a bar shower for the pair.

shower at Orchard Lake. The Spinster dinner is being planned by Mrs. Robert Frick and Mrs. William Fitzgerald.

MAY 31 NUPTIALS are in the offing for Margery Besser and John Taylor Knowles, Jr. Margery is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington A. Besser of Long Meadow road and John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Knowles of Chicago.

The ceremony will take place in the Mayflower Congregational Church of Detroit.

Mrs. Earl W. Peterson's Fairway Drive home was the setting for a miscellaneous shower honoring the bride-to-be on April 18. The following afternoon her matron of honor, Mrs. William Rhonehouse of Toledo, Ohio, and bridesmaid Carol Schneider of Magnolia Drive will give a linen shower for Margery.

After a brief trip to Chicago where the couple will make their home, Margery's calendar continues with a May 9 miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Oran C. Smith and Mrs. William Fryer of Detroit.

The Cranbrook road home of Mrs. Read Jenkins will be the setting of the May 16 housewarming shower to be hosted by Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Taylor Paisley and Mrs. Arthur Malone.

Margery's mother will host the spinster dinner scheduled for May 24. The rehearsal dinner will be given at the Fox and Hounds Inn by the groom's parents on the evening of May 20.

The BANKER'S STORY

WHEN WOMEN COULDN'T HAVE A BANK ACCOUNT!
 Banking privileges came slowly to women... Not until April 7, 1848, could a New York State woman have a bank account in her own name. Yet the word "Money" itself derives from "Moneta"—the Greek Goddess of Finance.

A great deal of modern banking is done with women. We welcome their business and we are pleased to discuss all money management problems with them.

FOR MEN ONLY was the order of the evening Tuesday when Philip Gage Libbitt gave the bachelor dinner. The following evening the girls had their turn as the bride-elect's sister-in-law hosted the spinster dinner at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club.

Receiving guests were Mrs. Robert C. Hamilton of Dayton, Ohio, and Mrs. Robert L. Sligh of Grand Rapids.

The rehearsal dinner will take place at the Fox and Hounds Inn Friday evening. The wedding party will be the guests of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton C. Patterson of Woodland road.

THE REDEEMER LUTHERAN Church will be the scene of the May 9 nuptials of Betty Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Lewis of Cedar Drive, and Kay E. Rhodes, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl E. Rhodes of Franklin road.

Betty has already been the guest of honor at showers hosted by Delores Merrick in her Birmingham home, and the groom's sister, Mrs. John Voorheis.

Her aunt, Mrs. William Morrison, has planned a miscellaneous shower for May 1 in her Oak Park home.

The rehearsal party has been planned for May 8.

NEXT IN THE LIST of May brides is Mary Welch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Welch, Jr., of Lone Pine road. Mary and A. Thomas Flynn, Jr., will repeat their vows in a May 24 ceremony at Christ Church.

In the past is Mrs. Austin Harmon's and Mrs. Alan Joslyn's kitchen shower at Mrs. Harmon's home.

April 16 was the date of the luncheon and miscellaneous shower at Bloomfield Hills Country Club, hosted by Mrs. H. Gray Muzzy and Mrs. Sheldon Noble.

Another April for Mary shower was the surprise party given by Mrs. F. H. Mott.

Yet to come is a luncheon and table-top shower given by Mrs. Donald Eade and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert Eade, on April 29.

On May 3, Mrs. W. S. Gilbreath and her daughter, Mrs. James Chandler, Mrs. Wallace Dodds and Jane Dodds will entertain for Mary at a luncheon and cupboard

"I've enough to keep track of!"

"SHOPPING, cooking, cleaning—these are just a few of my daily tasks. But I must always find time to balance the household budget.

"My checking account makes this job easier. A glance at my checkbook tells me how much I've spent, where I've spent it, and how much remains. Cancelled checks are my receipts."

Why not open a checking account yourself? It will save you much time and effort.
