BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE SCHOOL NEWS

Kindergarten news: This week we had a visitor, Kenny Side, who is Ross Schwidge's cousin. Ken is from Biloxi where he goes to kindergarten. We have been learning about boats and a mural was made for the wall. Some of the children brought boats to school to show to the class. Stories were read and songs were learned about these ships.

First grade news: We are happy to have Linda Anderson with us. We made a library on one side of our room with Gobby Garter in charge. Stanley Cutter reports we have 33 cents in our "Plant Fund." When we visit the Bell Greenhouse we will buy plants for our library.

SECOND GRADE NEWS: With all the decorations for spring in the windows and on the walls, our room is cheerful and gay. The health chart which was started last week will end in four weeks after which time the winner will receive a prize.

Third and fourth grade news: Susan Plasko is home from her Florida vacation. Mrs. Woodworth substituted one day last week. She showed us a magic trick. The Brownies went on a hike over at Oakland Hills Country Club. We hiked over to a lake where we saw two ducks swimming. Fritzie Harris brought our nibbles which were candy bars. Between the third and fourth grade a spelling bee was held with the fourth graders the winners, Jamie Eggart and a few others are home with the measles. Movies were shown to the class.

FOURTH AND FIFTH Grade: Officers for the week were: president, Michael Greer; vice president, Sue Garter; secretary, Claire Miller; reporter, Joe O'Brien. We saw movies on "Pygmies" and on "How to Catch a Cold". This was really on how to keep from catching one. Cubs had a pack meeting at school. Ten three gave a skit on Africa, George Harris, Dan Higgins, Jettis and Larry Crawford, Bobby Scott took part.

Sixth grade: Presidents, Delores Shay and Howie Davis; secretary, Carol Wailkainen; reporter, Judy McVidige; plant and animal keeper, Carol Green; sheriff, Terry Mahaffy, Ed Broadwell; books, Jeff Crawford and Mary Slater.

Posters have been completed for the garden show. Wed. Mar. 26, Mrs. Ray Doss and Mrs. Harner Schwidge drove the Girl Scouts over to Cranbrook Institute of Science.

MOVIES WERE SHOWN to the class—one on Pygmies, their habits, foods, etc. The other on the common cold, how it can develop into a very bad cold and what to do to combat it and keep germs from spreading.

Thurs. Mar. 27, we had ice cream and cookies in celebration of Carol Wailkainen's birthday. Dick Taylor and Bill Cartwright have completed a chart on Count Sylvester, and the story about the Count is being written by Judy Schwidge and Penny Greer. He is being switched to a "poop" diet. Right now the rat seems quite frisky, but on the poor diet, he probably won't feel gay for long. The class was shown how much damage can be done by a cracker. School Patrol meetings are being planned for every other week. Last Friday the class went on a field trip. Hank Bartholomew and Bill Cartwright caught a tiger Salamander.

WE ALL TRIED to be quiet in order that we might see some wild life. We saw rabbits and ducks. We got to within about ten yards of the ducks when they started to fly away. Some of the class spent most of their time wading around in pools looking for salamanders, frogs, snakes and water bugs. Different types of moss, fungus and galls were collected.

Bonnie Brand and Judy Schwidge walked out on some ice which gave way and they had to go back to school. Howard Flint tripped on some wire, but didn't get hurt. Last Saturday the Boy Scouts went on a hike. The Scouts worked on some of their second class tests. The School Championship Spelling Bee will be held Friday, April 4.

Students Study City Government

As its educational part of civic control day, the Student Congress committee plans to visit various divisions of the Detroit city government to get a better understanding of city administration.

At the request of Mrs. Carol Darling, congress adviser, Frank Rising, city commissioner, wrote to Mayor Albert E. Cobo for assistance in the program. Mr. Cobo replied with a most gracious letter expressing great interest in the program and saying that his personal secretary would plan the trip, which would include all places of interest that the committee wished to visit.

The tentative schedule for the trip, which can be made any day the committee desires with a guide from the mayor's office, is as follows:
9:30—Mayor's office and common council meeting; 10:30—Traffic court; 11:30—Lunch at Veterans' Memorial building; 1:00—City morgue; 2:00—City jail; 4:30—Humane society.

Student Body Plans Achievement Night

Parents of high school students are invited to school for the annual achievement night to be sponsored by the school PTA and presented April 22.

Guided tours conducted by members of Student Congress and Newcomer club are being planned by co-chairmen Mrs. Carol Darling and H. Ross Scrimgeour.

A short program over the public address system and demonstrations in the various departments will highlight the evening.

The staff of the "Highlander" school paper, will put on a demonstration of the paper is produced from news tips to finished mailing copies, skipping only the reproduction process which is done at the Eccentric.
