G. H. Landis Claims Bride In Recent Illinois Rites

Of interest to Birmingham were the nuptials at the First Methodist Church of Paxton, Ill., Saturday evening, August 7. George Houston Landis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Neuman Landis of Kimberley road, Birmingham, exchanged vows with Katherine Jane Merrimae.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Merrimae of Paxton. To speak her vows before the Rev. Lloyd Strouse she chose a gown of candlelight slipper satin.

The tightly fitted bodice featured a row of tiny satin buttons extending to high collar. Her long, fitted sleeves ended in points over the hands and the folds of her skirt fell to a sweeping cathedral train.

Her candlelight satin halo-cap held a fingertip veil of French illusion.

THE BRIDE'S sister, Mrs. Daniel David Bittle of Rantoul, Ill., was the matron of honor. The bridesmaids, all Chi Omega sorority sisters of the bride, were Mrs. Robert Willis Speed of Oak Park, Michigan, the groom's sister, Mrs. James Warren Kirchoff of Chicago; Mrs. Theodore Himes of Elgin, Ill.; and Virginia Edie of Monticello, Ill.

The bride's young niece, Pamela Jane Bittle, was the flower girl.

The honor attendant were a gown of champagne net over satin with a strapless satip bodice, topped with a matching jacket. She wore a wreath of ivy in her hair and carried a bouquet of trailing ivy.

The bridesmaids were in trunks fashioned with bouffant double net skirts over lustrous copper-shaded satin. Satin boleros, and wreaths in their hair completed the costumes and they carried trailing ivy clusters. The flower girl's frock was of lemon net over satin with a satin bodice.

Robert Willis Speed was his brother-in-law's best man. Guests were seated by Daniel David Bittle; George Peter Taylor of Park Forest, Ill.; James Warren Kirchoff; Charles Kirchoff Waters of Kenmore, N. Y.; Theodore Joseph Himes; and L. George Edwin Melahn of Dayton, Ohio.

A GARDEN RECEPTION at the home of the bride parents followed the ceremony. Mrs. Merrimae received guests in a dinner gown of same crepe accented with a corsage of green orchids.

Mrs. Landis was in beige lace over tulle, and wore a brown orchid corsage.

On her departure on her wedding trip, the bride donned a dress of navy crepe with a navy and gold accessories.

After an extended trip through the Adirondacks, Mr. and Mrs. Landis will be at home in Evanston, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Landis hosted the rehearsal dinner at the Arcade Club the evening before their son's nuptials.

Dinner Follows August 9th Vows

A dinner for the wedding party and members of the family followed the August 9 nuptials of Norma Jane Cinsader and Pvt. Dennis E. Tropey.

The couple were married at noon services at the Guardian Angel Church in Clawson. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Cinsader, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Torpey of Big Beaver.

Attendants included maid of honor Geraldine Needham and best man William Cinsader, a brother of the bride.

THE DINNER following the ceremony was held at Sylvan Glen Golf Club. A reception took place that evening at the American Legion Hall.

After a motor trip through Canada the newlyweds will return to Clawson before Pvt. Tropey reports to Seattle, Wash., for overseas duty.

New Show Opens At Summer Theatre

"Lo and Behold," John Patrick's comedy which had its pre-Broadway premiere in Detroit last year, opened at World-Way Playhouse Tuesday evening.

Patrick, also author of "The Hasty Heart," has created a whimsical world of active sprites. After the death of the leading man in the first act, the stage is filled with a large assortment of ghosts, including an Indian maid who was casualty of Lovell's Leap, a fanciful Southern belle; and a concert pianist.

"Lo and Behold" is under the direction of Will-O-Way producer, William W. Merrill. Featured in the cast are Dr. Edward J. Attarney, Gerald M. Harrington, Betty Tati, Stephen Pope, Frances Betty, Barbara Meek, Jack McBride and Clyde Adler.
