NEWS FROM Southeast of Birmingham
 BY JANE STACC
 Lincoln 4-0790

Sungda, Mrs. and Mrs. J. J. Livingston, Jr. of Elmwood Avenue entertained at the new home of Mrs. Livingston's parents, the F. V. Botts, on Green Lake. Among those enjoying the day-long party were the Fred and Leigh Smiths, Jack Suttons and Ted Bowers. Sailing the Botts' canoe and Livingston's sailing canoe interested many guests.

The same day the Edward Jacques of Olivia Avenue had a birthday party for their son, Teddy, who was eight years old. Guests at the party were Tommy and Barbara Lau, Sara Douglas, Leslie and Gary Ask, Buddy and Kathy Leverenz, Rickie Gallup and Robin Lau.

Mrs. Gaber M. Aufrecht and her three year old daughter, Christie, are at home on Olivia Avenue. Mrs. Aufrecht's parents in Buckinghamshire, England, Buckinghamshire is between London and Oxford. They left home April 10 and returned to this country on the maiden voyage of the S.S. United States. Aufrecht met them in New York City and visited his parents in Westchester for several weeks before returning home.

The W. J. Manors, of Robinwood Avenue have movies taken during their recent three week tour of the Northwest. They visited Jasper National Park, Lake Louise, Banff, Yellowstone National Park, Glacier National Park, Mt. Rushmore and Deadwood, South Dakota.

Their son, Jimmy, was especially interested in the rodeos and check wagon races held in Calgary, Alberta during the annual week-long Calgary Stampede. At present, Jimmy is at Camp Obiweya near Holly, Michigan.

The Gordon Loves of Banlet Road returned recently after a ten day stay at a cottage on Gull Lake near Battle Creek. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dierkes of Elmwood Avenue spent five days at a cottage near Kingsville, Ont. earlier in the season. They have just returned from a weeks visit with Dierkes' mother, Mrs. C. L. Hart at Lake Bennett near Fen-ton, Mich.

Mrs. Harry Fairchild of Robinwood is spending this week with the seven members of her bridge club at Pointe Aux Barques. Mrs. Harold B. Jackson of Huntington Woods has the group as houseguests at her summer place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Richard Cone and children have returned to Olivia Avenue after visiting Mrs. Cone's sister and brother-in-law, the B. W. Arntzes, on Lake Michigan at Muskegon. Nancy Cone attended day camp with her cousin Barbara Arntz before her parents

Year's Plans Discussed By AAUW Board

New officers and committee chairmen of the Birmingham branch of the American Association of University Women were entertained Friday at the home of the president, Mrs. Kenneth Swartwood of Linden road.

After introducing the new board members Mrs. Swartwood announced that immediately following the first fall meeting of the association of September 17, she will leave for Europe with her husband. During Mrs. Swartwood's absence the new vice-president, Mrs. Burley Laurimore, will take over her duties.

A TENTATIVE program outlining for the year was presented and discussed by the chairman, Mrs. Edward W. McCaul.

The season's first speaker will be Mrs. Ralph B. Alsbaugh of Cincinnati, Ohio, regional vice-president of the AAUW. During the fall and winter, well-known legislators and educators will address the group on subjects in their respective fields.

FRIDAY'S MEETING was concluded with a report by chairman Mrs. Charles Blunt on the committee's summer work toward the annual AAUW Book Sale. The sale is scheduled for October 19-25.
