AL Post Near Season's End

Birmingham's American Legion Post winds up the regular baseball season this Sunday, Aug. 24, with a game at Pierce Field with Clawson. Starting time of the game will be 2:30 p.m.

On Wednesday, Aug. 13, Birmingham played a 4-4 tie with Berkeley. The game was called at the end of the seventh inning because of darkness. Mutch scattered eight hits to keep Berkeley to one run. Birmingham batters were able to garner only four hits off the pitching of Bando.

Sunday, the Birmingham team won a thriller over Waterford 2-1 with Sheldon gaining the win. Waterford's lone run came in the first of the eighth inning when Kratt, their hurler, slammed a home run, putting Waterford in front 1-0.

In the last of the eighth, Birmingham tied the score when Libby bunted safely and Jerry Beckz batting for Flack, the catcher, tripled, scoring Libby.

Birmingham went up to win the game in the ninth when singles by Wedge and Groves and a walk to Tom Beck landed the bases. Wedge scored on a passed ball. Birmingham's team, regional winner for the first half of the season, appears certain of the regional crown for the final half of the year.

Rev. Kontz To Be Heard On Detroit Broadcast

The Rev. Emil Kontz, pastor of the First Baptist church, will appear on the 9-15 a.m. TV program Sunday, "Religion in the News."

Under the sponsorship of the Detroit Council of Churches, he will give a report on the progress of religious work among all church denominations in the Metropolitan area.
