

Women's Orchestra To Hold Auditions

The women musicians of Birmingham are invited to attend the auditions being conducted by the Detroit Women's Symphony Orchestra at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, September 2.

Victor Kolar, director of the orchestra, will hold the auditions at the Woodward Avenue Baptist Church, corner of Woodward and Winder.

In preparing for its sixth season, the orchestra is seeking to build its various sections. The auditions are open to all women instrumentalists in the metropolitan area.

Rehearsals will begin Tuesday, September 3, and will be held

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hart Exchange Vows In Jackson

When Robert L. Hart claimed Margaret Ann Blank of Jackson for his bride Saturday afternoon, the ceremony in the First Presbyterian Church of Jackson was witnessed by a number from Birmingham.

Robert is the son of Mrs. Melvin C. Hart of Villa road, and the late Mr. Hart. Among those present at the double-ring ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schooley, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hallender, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hebbelwhite, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Morrow and family, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Peckham and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Vilet, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Guie, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Hough, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carnahan, Arthur Fairbanks, Jr., and Robert and Thomas Roth.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Carroll? They and their two daughters, Marilyn, 12, and Maureen, 10, moved from Chicago to 6386 Thurber road in July. Mr. Carroll is manager of the Detroit branch of the Kohler Company.

THE BRIDE, daughter of Mrs. John E. Blank of Jackson, and the late Mr. Blank, was given in marriage by her brother, John Blank. She repeated her vows before the Rev. J. W. Wimberly in a white taffeta gown styled with full skirt and train.

Alonzo lace framed the off-shoulder neckline and her open-crowned cap was studded with clusters of seed pearls. A fingertip veil of French illusion completed her costume, and the bride carried a cascade of white Pugi chrysanthemums.

The identically-styled gowns of the five attendants formed an all-white bridal procession. Their white satin and net strapless frocks were topped with net stoles and they wore white net cloches encircled with crushed net bands.

The bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. John C. Blank, was her matron of honor. Bridesmaids included another sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert J. Blank, Mrs. James Williams, Joan Wilcox and the groom's sister, Marilyn Hart.

All carried cascades of deep red gladioli.

JOHN SWETT was the best man. Ushering were Allan Blank, Robert Carnahan; and two of the groom's Theta Chi Fraternity brothers from Michigan State College, James Williams and James Haden.

For the nuptials and the reception which followed at the Arbor Hills Country Club, Mrs. Blank wore a gown of navy Chantilly lace. Mrs. Hart chose a gown of aqua chiffon accented with a panel of Chantilly lace. Both she and Mrs. Blank wore corsages of red roses.

The couple left the reception for a motor trip through Northern Michigan. For traveling the bride chose a black sheer with white linen touches and black accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Hart will make their home in Jackson after September 1.

MRS. ROBERT L. HART

Have You Met . . .

The new residents of 16260 Amherst avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence W. Matthews? The Matthews moved from Ferndale in June. Mr. Matthews is an accountant with the Chrysler Corporation. He is a member of the Ferndale P & AM, the Ferndale chapter of R.A.M., Jewish Council, and the Northville Commandery K.T. Mrs. Matthews, a teacher in the Highland Park Public Schools, is a member of the Ferndale chapter of the O.E.S. and is fond of sewing and hand-weaving.

TED A. WATSON of Pembroke drive, Bloomfield Hills, was snapped on his August 14 departure from New Orleans aboard the Alcoa Puritan for a 21-day Caribbean cruise. Joining him in Mobile for the cruise is his brother James. The voyage will include visits to Kingston, Port au Prince, St. Thomas, St. Croix, Georgetown and Port of Spain.

Parking Area For Your Shopping Convenience

Old-Main Trotter LOAFERS

Special $8.95 regularly 9.95

Imagine! The classic casual favorite of this and every season, now yours at a definite saving, for smart casual wear indefinitely. The softest loafers you've ever slipped into! The fine calfskin leathers were specially selected for suppleness. Hand stitched and carefully crafted, these loafers follow your every motion and stay in perfect shape.

Jacobson's
Maple at Bates - Birmingham

Campus Story: GIRL MEETS BOY SHIRTS

Everybody loves our cotton boy shirts by Shapely Classics . . . career girl, scholar and the young of heart! Practical, they're dunkable even in a washing machine . . . come out sparkling bright.

A. Charcoal grey, black, white, red or navy cotton with white pique wing collar. Sizes 10 to 18. 4.95

B. Lavender, red, black or grey calico print shirt with Peter Pan collar. Sizes 10 to 18. 4.95

C. Blue, maize, pink or white Oxford cloth shirt with button-down collar. Sizes 10 to 18. 3.95

D. Interesting vivacious plaids, with white pique collar and cuffs, plus a pert tie. Sizes 10 to 18. 4.95

E. Lavender, red, black or grey calico-print or chambray Gibson Girl shirt. Sizes 10 to 18. 4.95

SPORTSWEAR—STREET LEVEL

Before you make any plans, see our complete collection of smartest fashions, ever to grace a campus

Jacobson's
Maple at Bates - Birmingham