

Zimmermann-Anklam Vows Said Yesterday Afternoon

A reception at the Whittier followed the afternoon nuptials of Frances Elizabeth Anklam and Robert Paul Zimmermann yesterday afternoon.

The Rev. Dean Weaver officiated at the four o'clock vows at St. Paul's Cathedral. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Anklam of Detroit, stood at the altar in a gown of ivory satin with an illusion net neckline.

The brides of the bridal gown was accented with seed-pearl roses. The bride wore a fingertip veil of ivory tulle, and the hair was pinned in Rosepointe lace on her cap was worn by her mother at her nuptials.

THE BRIDE carried a cascade arrangement of stephanotis and white gargarasias.

Ann Hardy was the maid of honor, and the bride's sister, Caroline Anklam and Nancy White completed the list of bridal attendants.

Their identical ballerina gowns of blue taffeta were topped with pearl-trimmed jackets. Miss Hardy carried cream-colored roses, and the maids carried pale pink bouquets.

Ralph E. Zimmermann, Jr., was his brother's best man. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Zimmermann of Chesterfield road, William Bush and John Hall of Flint ushered.

MRS. ANKLAM received guests in a gown of emerald green crepe with a matching hat. Mrs. Zimmermann chose a navy taffeta cocktail dress.

The new brides left the reception for Montreal and a trip on the Saguenay river. For traveling the bride changed to a beige and black linen shantung suit. They will make their home on Rensselaer boulevard, Oak Park.
