

Miss Wonnberger Wed On Saturday In Christ Church

In a mid-afternoon ceremony at Christ Church, Cranbrook last Saturday, Jo Anne Wonnberger, of Cranbrook, became the bride of Paul Ritchie Wheaton of Wauwatosa, Wis.

The bride was in a waist-length gown of white nylon tulle. The shirred bodice had an off-shoulder neckline with an illusion yoke, and she wore illusion gauntlets and carried white gladioli.

Nancy Wonnberger, her sister's only attendant, wore a lavender net frock with a net cap and short veil. Her flowers were shaded lavender gladioli.

THE GROOM, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wheaton of Wauwatosa, was attended by best man Robert Graf of Mosaik on Heights, and ushers Joseph Allen of Melvindale, and George Jellia of Manitowish.

Ms. Wonnberger attended her daughter's nuptials in a turquoise silk organza dress with matching accessories. She pinned bronze orchids to her shoulder.

Mrs. Wheaton wore an orchid silk shantung gown with a matching hat and gray accessories. Lavender orchids formed her corsage.

For her wedding trip the bride changed into a gray suit with blue accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Wheaton will reside in Chicago after a short trip.
