A Message To Our Friends and Neighbors from DEAN COFFIN, Inc. 348 EAST MAPLE BIRMINGHAM

Dear Mr. Coffin: My Dad and Mother recently bought one of your freezers and they buy food on your family plan, too.

But—I've got to write a term paper on frozen foods and on this new system for buying food for a family.

My Dear Miss James: Thanks for writing us about our food plan and freezers.

Your Economics teacher is right. It is a revolution in the way food can be purchased for family use.

The answer to your question is: it all depends on who your food dealer is, and what kind of contract he has with his food source.

The people who formed this company are men who have raised families here in Oakland county and who know what it costs to feed growing kids.

So tell your Home Economics teacher that the freezer-food plan is a fine way to buy food for a family if it's handled by the right kind of business person.

Cordially,

Dean Coffin Inc. Freezers & Family Food Plans 348 E. Maple Midwest 4-8500

See TIDE magazine, May 9: "The home freezer-frozen foods sales tie-up is particularly logical. It offers housewives a way to combat high food costs.

Indians Crowned In Little League As Pirates Lose The American Division Indians are the new champions of the Little League.

The Pirates scored three unearned runs in the third inning and a fourth in the sixth inning. Their only earned run came in the sixth.

THE SATURDAY GAME was a thriller for the Indian fans. Going into the last inning three runs behind, Pease battered with the bases full to take the game for the American League.

IN TUESDAY NIGHT'S FINAL the Indians scored their first run in the second inning when Capelli batted.
