

Suburban Seen

By KAY REED

A NUMBER OF LOCAL mothers and fathers were spotted bright and terribly early the other morning in a suburb somewhat south of here. Gathered outside of the boarded-up Michigan Central station at Woodward and the Boulevard were those who have been receiving epistles from Huntington and Sherwood campers these last weeks.

Among those gathering in the grey dawn awaiting the "Walloon Lake Express" were Mr. and Mrs. Tim Meulenberg for young John. Mr. and Mrs. Ormand S. Wessels for Linda, and Mrs. Glen R. Miller for Julie.

Other young campers who rushed off the train when it pulled in at seven a.m. were Carol Pierce and Harry Gordon. Last but not least was Nan Garden, Huntington counselor who chaperoned the group on its all-night hegira. Nan will re-pack her bags with skirts and sweaters before leaving shortly for Leland-Stanford University and her freshman year.

THE RESORT COLONY at Harbor Springs includes newlyweds Lt. and Mrs. Miles Chapline McDonnell who just returned from a honeymoon on Cape Cod and several days in New York.

The young couple are the guests of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. McDonnell. The lieutenant must report September 8 on the West Coast for overseas duty. An added note on their August 9 wedding in Indianapolis was the presence of four young Air Corps officers who gave up previous leave time to usher at the nuptials.

RETURNING VACATIONERS include Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Terry of Half Moon drive who recently completed a fifteen-day cruise to Mackinac Island aboard their cruiser, "Terry-Go-Round". They were accompanied by sons Bruce and Bob.

EN ROUTE to Wolfboro, N. H., are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Burgis of Warren Court. They will pick up son Jack at Camp Wyandoc and return by way of New Haven, Conn., where they will visit Yale, Mr. B's alma mater.

BACK ON the local scene is Gerry Ganley of South Glenhurst drive after spending a week in Magnolia, Mass., with Stephens College roommate, Nancy McEwen.

THE HICKORY GROVE road home of Mrs. Robert Skillman was the scene of an August 18 luncheon honoring Mrs. Skillman's houseguests, Mrs. Oscar Nordstrom of Chicago, Mrs. Virginia Barham of New York City, and Mrs. Virginia Aubrey of Winter Park, Fla.

New here?

Just move to Birmingham or Bloomfield? You'll feel at home before you know it. For it's a friendly place, as you have likely already discovered.

We always like to meet new-comers, and frequently have been surprised at the extent of helpfulness this Shop can render toward making a new house a home. Lamps, stationery, pictures, tables, glassware, books, toys, summer furniture, wastebaskets, silverware, linens, photograph frames—all these are here, plus so many beautiful things we really hope you will come see us—soon.

We're not far from Woodward, on the South side of West Maple, at the sign of the lantern.

T. H. Dooley Claims Bride At An All-White Ceremony

Southfield Village resident Thomas Henry Dooley and Patricia Dolores McCoy chose Saturday, August 23, for their wedding vows in St. Michael's church.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Emmett McCoy of Detroit, and the groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Meagher Dooley of Southfield, were wed at ten o'clock nuptial high Mass by the Rev. Gerald Heid.

For the double-ring ceremony the bride wore a gown styled with a bodice of Chantilly lace over white taffeta and a nylon tulle overskirt. A cathedral train and fingertip veil completed her costume and she carried a lace-covered prayer book with a white orchid.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Lawrence Gauthier, came from Cincinnati to be the matron of honor. She and bridesmaids Jean Zerfa of Three Rivers and Dorothy Purcell continued the all-white theme by wearing white nylon marquisette dresses and large white picture hats.

The attendants carried white baskets filled with red roses and

Bridal Party Wears Blue For Saturday Noon Rites

When Catharine Cleveland Lockwood met Francis Sherwood Tanzer before the altar of St. Hugo of the Hills at high noon Saturday, she and her attendants were all gowned in blue.

To repeat her vows before the Rev. Francis Stank, the bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick St. John Lockwood of North Eton road, chose a gown of ice-blue satin.

The bridal costume was styled with a fitted bodice and full skirt which extended to a full-length train. Her latticed Juliet cap of matching satin was studded with pearls and held a French illusion veil.

The bride carried a mother-of-pearl prayer book to which was fastened a white orchid corsage.

EDNA TANZER came from Utica, N.Y., to be her new sister-in-law's maid of honor. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Tanzer of Utica.

Completing the bridal procession were Arlene Akins of White Plains, N.Y., the bride's cousin, Clair McKinley of White Plains, and flower girl Geraldine Ann Climer.

The attendants' ankle-length dresses of light blue taffeta were covered with nylon net over-grain ribbon and yellow daisies, and they carried daisy bouquets.

The flower girl was in a pale blue organly frock with a matching pocket bouquet.

Robert Thomas Armstrong was the best man. The bride's two brothers, Frederick St. John Lockwood III and William Lockwood, seated the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston Attend Son's Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Houston of Argyle boulevard have returned from Milwaukee, where they attended the wedding of their son, Henry A. Houston III and Nancy Lou Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil B. Morgan of Fox Point, Wis.

En route home Mr. and Mrs. Houston visited friends in Harbor Springs and Leland, Mich.

JOHN FOREST DOOLEY was his brother's best man. Another brother, Capt. Edward M. Dooley, recently returned from three years of service in Austria, and Hugh Caverly seated the guests.

A wedding breakfast at Botsford Inn was followed by a reception. Mrs. McCoy greeted guests in a door-length gown of chartreuse Chantilly lace with brown accessories. Mrs. Dooley's floor-length gown was of teal blue highlighted with deeper blue accessories.

For traveling the bride donned a cream linen suit trimmed in brown and brown accessories.

The couple will make their home in Ann Arbor while the groom continues his studies at the University of Michigan.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

Miss DuBois Wed In Parents' Home Saturday Evening

Tapers set in silver candelabra illuminated the gladioli and chrysanthemum-banked altar in front of the French window of the P. W. DuBois home on Baldwin late Saturday afternoon.

At five o'clock Charlotte B. DuBois and Fred B. Gordon repeated their vows before the Rev. W. Glen Harris. The bride wore a mauve street-length dress of pure silk taffeta with an organza overskirt.

She wore a cap and veil and carried white fugi mums centered with an orchid corsage.

In navy blue was the bride's only attendant, Barbara Blakeslee of Grand Rapids.

R. J. Gillilan of Grand Rapids was the best man. The groom is the son of Mrs. Ladonna Gordon of Grand Rapids, and J. B. Gordon of Peoria, Ill.

A dinner at Carrie Lee's Tea

Room followed for the wedding party and members of the family. After an eastern motor trip Mr. and Mrs. Gordon will reside in Grand Rapids.

PRE-NUPRIAL PARTIES for the bride included an August 19 shower at the Fortiac home of Mrs. E. F. Collins, with Mrs. E. R. Bigler and Mrs. E. M. McLario co-hostesses.

On August 21 Mrs. Guy Jensen gave a dessert luncheon in her Kennebec road home, assisted by Mrs. H. T. Ellerby, Mrs. Robert Chisau and Mrs. Eldred Barden.
