Supper At Detroit Golf Club Follows Candlelight Nuptials

A supper at the Detroit Golf Club Saturday evening followed the candlelight nuptials of Jane Hodges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Hodges of Telegraph road, and George Lawson Erb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Erb of Detroit.

The Rev. Lawrence W. Pearson officiated at the double-ring ceremony at eight o'clock in Christ Church Cranbrook.

The bride was in a classic gown of taffeta with a long fitted bodice ending in a bouffant court train. A wide band of imported Alencon lace edged the V neckline and shoulders.

The bride's long, silk illusion veil fell from a tiara of pearls and she carried an arm bouquet of white roses and stephanotis with one white orchid.

MRS. LOUIS W. GARRETT came from Tampa, Fla., to be her

A gift which should always be sent promptly

Thoughtless delay in saying "Thank You" via a bread-and-butter gift cannot but mar somewhat the feeling when it is received.

Of all gifts, perhaps the "We-had-a-grand-time-at-your-cottage" gift is the one most successful when it is spontaneously dispatched upon your return.

If you are too busy to come in, just lift your phone and call us Midwest 4-3030. We'll select and send it for you, and we have suitable small gifts bound to be gratefully received.
