Saturday morning in the Shrine of the Little Flower, Gloria Greene was married to Lee Visner of Royal Oak.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Greene of Cooper avenue, wore a sheer gown trimmed with Chantilly lace and a fingertip-length tulle veil. She carried a white orchid and prayer-book.

Honor attendant Rita Michelson of Brighton was in a gown of blue net topped with a velvet jacket. Her flowers were pink and white asters.

Three-year-old Mary Ann Michelson was the flower-girl. The groom's nephew, Terry Cox, was the ring-bearer.

THE HOME of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. William Michelson of Detroit, was the scene of the wedding breakfast. A reception was held Saturday evening at the American Legion Hall in Royal Oak.

Mr. Green received guests in a lace gown with brown velvet accessories.

The bride wore a black and gray faille suit with black accessories when the newlyweds started on a three-week honeymoon in California. On their return they will make their home in Royal Oak.
