

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

Cape Aviles, in charge of visiting the Portuguese Civil Air Patrol cadets: "It has been a great honor and privilege for these boys to be taken into Birmingham homes as they were. The trip has been very wonderful for all of them, but I feel that the six boys who came to Birmingham are among the most fortunate of them all. The people here have given them every consideration and have done everything possible to make the weekend most pleasant. I only hope the boys conducted themselves in a manner which reflects favorably upon their country and their group as a whole.

New copy submitted early necessarily is given preference over late items. So the "Early Bird" usually gets the space.

Shirley Miller Weds Carl Coster In Saturday Vows

MRS. L. CARL COSTER

At a double-ring ceremony Saturday morning at St. Hugo of the Hills, Shirley Miller became the bride of Carl Coster. They exchanged vows before the Rev. Francis T. Stack.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Miller of Greentree road. Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Coster of Pontiac are the parents of the groom.

The bride wore a gown of Spanish mantilla lace, with yoke forming a sweetheart neckline. A double bias of satin encircled her shoulders with a V in front and back.

THE BRIDE'S bonnet matched the lace in her gown and held a French illusion veil edged with lace. She carried two white orchids on a mother-of-pearl prayer-book and a rosary given her by the groom.

Mary Louise Weisbar was the maid of honor. Attendants included Mrs. Raymond Thompson, Glenna Miller, Mrs. John Guenther, Mrs. Robert Reynolds, Cynthia Booth and Jeanne Pratt. The bride's niece, Linda Guenther, is flower girl.

cloches and carried American beauty roses with ivy streamers. Ernest T. Coster, Jr., was his brother's best man. Ushering were John Guenther, Edward Gagner, Robert Reynolds, Frank Purenty, Jack Coyle and Jerry Jenkins.

MRS. MILLER wore a gown of cream lace over mint satin with mint green accessories. Mrs. Coster was in a gown of dusty rose linen and lace with navy accessories.

After an evening reception at the Chief Post of Pontiac, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Northern Michigan and Canada. The new Mrs. Coster donned a dress of light blue silk and navy velvet accessories.

The couple will reside in Pontiac.

THE MOORS OF ENGLAND will come to life in Cranbrook's Greek Theater, this weekend when students of Cranbrook Summer Theater present "Jane Eyre". Shown in rehearsal are Tom Hawley and Margaret Armstrong. (See story on page 2 of section 3).
