MRS. OSCAR A. TRIPPET, JR.

Former Resident Is Married Saturday in Ann Arbor Vows

Former Birmingham resident Ellen Holmes Campbell became the bride of Oscar A. Trippet, Jr., at a double-ring service Saturday afternoon.

The Rev. Dr. Leonard Barr heard the pair repeat their vows in the First Congregational Church of Ann Arbor. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Francis Campbell, now making their home in Ann Arbor. The groom is the son of Oscar A. Trippet of Los Angeles, and Mrs. James F. Cummins of Scarsdale, N.Y. Mrs. Cummins hosted the rehearsal dinner at the University of Michigan. Women's League on the eve of the nuptials.

The BRIDE stood at the altar in a gown of imported French organdy with a bouffant skirt and circular train. A fitted pleated bodice was accented by a row of tiny luttons down the front and back. Her elbow-length sleeves were puffed, and she wore small organdy mitts.

A Juliet cap held the bride's French illusion fingertip veil, and she carried a cascade arrangement of white feather carnations centered with a corsage of pink carnations.

In the role of honor matron was the bride's sister, Mrs. Herbert M. Kennedy. Another sister, Janet G. Campbell of Ann Arbor, and the groom's sister, Martha A. Trippet of Bronxville, N. Y., were bridesmaids.

Their dresses were fashioned after the bridal gown in white organdy with pale lilac moire silk bodices and underskirts, with the honor attendant in an apple green shade.

All wore daisy chaplets and the bridesmaids carried daisy pom-poms centered with a lilac-colored fuzi mum. Mrs. Kennedy's bouquet was composed of an apple green shaded fuzi mum set in lilac tinted pom-poms.

MR. TRIPPET was his son's best man. Ushers included France Rainey of Ann Arbor, Michael Lutzzi of Abington, Pa., and Littleton Bachus of Ann Arbor.

The bride's mother attended in a Dior street-length gown of blue silk shantung and a pink velvet hat. She wore a pink orchid corsage. For her son's nuptials Mrs. Cummins chose a pink street-length costume and a white orchid.

AMONG THE out-of-town guests attending the service and reception which followed in the church parlors were Miss Georgie McMahon of Frontenac, Minn., and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Clarence Thayer of Evanston, Ill. For her Quebec honeymoon the bride donned a black cotton dress with a pink coat and black accessories. After a week in Quebec the newlyweds will drive to their new home in San Luis Obispo, Cal.

A son, Gustave Curtis, was born July 29 to MR. AND MRS. G. WILLIAM OSTERMANN of Lasher road, Bloomfield Hills. Mr. Ostermann is the former Harrison Houghton of Birmingham.

A son, John Kirk, was born July 28 to MR. AND MRS. JAMES K. ALLEN of 14 Mile road. Mrs. Allen is the former Doris Kus.

A son, John Bremer, was born August 2 to DR. AND MRS. ROBERT H. WESSELS of Larchlea drive.
