Garden Club To Share Greens

"Sharing of the Greens", the 16th annual Christmas show and open house of the Birmingham branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, will take over the Community House from one until nine o'clock Wednesday, December 17.

Exhibits will be accepted from nine in the morning until noon as workers use pine and balsam, red berries and ribbon in carrying out the theme, described in the December issue of "American Home" by member Mrs. Lewis C. Dibble.

Departing from tradition, the show will not be judged. Emphasis will be on the exchange of ideas in holiday decoration throughout the house, traditional family arrangements, and beginner's displays.

Under the direction of Mrs. George Goodwin, general chairman, more than thirty members are working as exhibit chairmen and on special committees. The list of exhibitors will include a majority of the club's active membership.

THE FIRST FLOOR of the Community House will be given over to the show. Mrs. E. W. Robertson will supply the recorded Christmas music which will fill the rooms during the show.

Focal point of the exhibit will be the stage, presided over by Mrs. W. A. Johnson and Mrs. Clyde Hagerman. Adding to the atmosphere will be "Three Happy Clowns" written by sculptor Marshall Fredericks.

COMING OUT of seclusion for the show will be a brass candlestick collection belonging to Mrs. Lewis Dibble who will prepare a holiday buffet party table. Mrs. Steele R. Sellers is polishing an old Victorian glass dome for an arrangement of red carnations for the dining-room table.

Mrs. Lloyd Linton is dusting off an old wicker olive basket in which she will arrange fruits and nuts for the kitchen, and Mrs. Hugh Backus has her St. Francis, a product of her own work in ceramics, all glazed and ready for a terrace arrangement.

Another small St. Francis bird-feeder is being decked out by garden club president, Mrs. Frank Webb, for the bird's Christmas breakfast. Gourds filled with suet

Have You Met . . .

New arrivals at 531 Oakland avenue? They are Dr. and Mrs. Norman H. Strong; 21 year-old son Roger; 15 year-old Philip; 11 year-old Gordon and 9 year-old Janet. KITCHEN TO ENCHANT YOU

You'll be the envy of your friends here. Picture yourself with your own family gathered around this happy meeting place. Flames crackling about the hearth lend mellow warmth and friendliness that far transcends the mundane business of just eating.

In this unique Pennsylvania Dutch kitchen, there are many unusual features to intrigue you such as the beamed ceiling, knotty cedar panelling, random planked, pegged floors. A gleaming copper hood over the counter-style Thermador stove. Yes, there's a Thermador oven at waist-level, too. And of course, a dishwasher and disposal.

- Attractive paneled library. 2 bedrooms. 2 baths.
- Lovely paneled fireplace wall across the living room.
- Vistas (breath-taking) of Gilbert Lake to capture the burning Western sunsets.
- Games room with fireplace and another picture window.
- Carpeting. Draperies. Storm sash. Screens.

It's too beautiful for mere words—So—we suggest you phone us for an inspection appointment.

IT ISN'T A "DREAM HOME!"

No . . . not a "beautiful, rambling farmhouse Colonial" either . . . but a wonderful chance to live where you work . . . or to invest in Birmingham's future.

It's a three-family income now . . . but it's zoned for business . . . ideal for a Doctor who wants to practice in his home . . . a Decorator or a specialty sales business . . . or a manufacturer's representative who wants an office in Birmingham PLUS income apartments to pay the overhead.

FIRST FLOOR: Living Room, Dining Room, Kitchen, 2 Bedrooms and Bath

SECOND FLOOR: 2 smaller "Three room and Bath" apartments

NOTE: These three units could easily lease for a total gross of better than 10% on the purchase price. Are you doing that well on YOUR investments?

This makes sense, don't you think so? Birmingham's rapid growth means money making possibilities for those who have vision. Here's growth enhancement with better than average return. Deed it to your children!

Seldom are we privileged to offer such a complete 3-bedroom home in the modest price bracket. The Owner, in the four years since the house was built, has spent over $6,500.00 in those "extras" which make for ease and graceful living.

For instance: a charming breakfast bar has been built into the kitchen.

Disposal and Dishmaster. Generous screened porch. 1 1/2-car garage.

Full storms and screens. The basement has been partitioned and the ceiling finished. Heater and tub rooms are closed off. The living room has been outfitted with handsome bookcases; drapes and carpeting included. Also a Water Softener.

The decorating (the house was painted in September) is custom in taste and workmanship; and the house reflects the kind of care you would give it yourself.
