The Woodcreek annual Christmas dance, at 9 p.m., Dec. 12, at the Western Golf and Country club, is open to all in the Franklin area, and no reservations are necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hill will be hosts to 12 guests at a dinner party at their home on Rodney road prior to the dance.

The Phil Van Dykes have invited Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cook, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hampson and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Green for cocktails at their Franklin road home preceding the Woodcreek affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Krentel, Greenbrier road, will be hosts at cocktails before the dance to the Harold Roseberry's, the Haskell Wrights, the James Keans and the H. G. Heideman. They will be hosts again on Saturday night to their birthday club at the group's annual Christmas party at their home following dinner at the Fox and Hounds. The party will serve also to welcome new neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sturdevant.

Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Greig are home after deer hunting with a party of friends at Clear Lake, near Gaylord. Dr. and Mrs. Ford Daines hunted for a week at their lodge near Frankfort. Neither party had any luck.

The Edward Greens, Woodlone drive, have been in New York on a shopping tour, as have been Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rottiers of 13-Mile road.

Mrs. Win Hinman was hostess at luncheon yesterday at her home on Wellington road, with members of the music committee of the Literary Society as her guests. She will be hostess to members of the Child Study club, when the group and husbands hold their annual Christmas party on Dec. 20. The club includes persons from Pontiac, Dearborn and Highland Park and includes Mrs. Franklin, Mrs. Ford Rittner, Mrs. John Hill, Mrs. Eugene Kelly and Mrs. Harlan Morris.

Franklin School will close for the holidays on Friday Dec. 19, reconvening on Monday Dec. 19. Lunch at noon on Dec. 19 will be supplemented by ice cream and cookies furnished by the P.T.A. After lunch each class will have a Christmas program and caroling. The enrollment is now so high that only one class each year will have a party to which parents are invited. This year Mrs. Erickson's second graders will present Hansel and Gretel for their parents, on Dec. 17. Kindergarten parties Dec. 19 will be held in accordance with the "children's" regular school hours.

Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Greig will have a full house over the holidays. Son Pete will be home Dec. 16, after graduating from Michigan State. Dick, stationed with the Air Force at Jacksonville, Fla., will arrive Dec. 20, and daughter Gaele will be home from the University of Illinois the following day.

Sue Hershey will arrive from Kansas University on Christmas Eve. Her brother Pete will be on his way from the Air Force base at San Antonio, Tex.

Sue Fricker will start her two-week holiday from the University of Michigan Dec. 19.

Mary Elizabeth Smith, daughter of the G. Wellington Smiths, will be home after graduating from Michigan State.

John Ziegelsbaue will arrive from State for the holidays Dec. 16.

Mrs. Ralph Woodburn will open her home at 32055 Telegraph road for a Christmas tea to be given at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 17, by the Friendly Circle, Evening and Young Ladies Circles will be guests. Mrs. Stanley Krentel is in charge of the group assisting with the refreshments. Mrs. Ralph Pearson, of Royal Oak, will narrate Christmas stories and Mrs. Clifford Baugh will provide organ music.

The Evening Circle will hold its regular meeting at 8 p.m. Dec. 18 at the home of Mrs. Fay Hauk, Franklin road. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Franklin Taylor, Mrs. Emil Bates, Mrs. James Crawford and Mrs. Willard Hart.

Members of the Live Wire club held their annual Christmas party and exchanged gifts when they met for dinner at the Colonial Inn in Birmingham last Monday evening. Christmas stockings made and filled by the group will be given to the Children's hospital in Farmington.

The discussion group will meet Sunday evening, Dec. 21. They will attend the Christmas musicale at the Franklin Community church and later be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Baugh at their home on Crestwood drive.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
