

Come to the Community Sing

"Come one and all and bring the family to sing familiar carols Christmas Eve. We gather by the creche and city tree. —For half an hour your duties you can leave.

"You'll feel the village atmosphere again Where all are friendly neighbors, new and old. A glow of hope and brotherhood creeps in. No matter what the weather, warm or cold.

"So meet us there, five-thirty is the hour. And sing as you have never sung before. We'll celebrate the blessed Christ child's birth As shepherds and the angels 'd of yore."

—Mrs. Donald T. Stanton

WELL, IT SEEMS the old Methodist church steeple isn't gone for good. For those who lamented the passing of the church, West Maple road landmark which was torn down last week, the church ladies have a stock of dinner plates embossed with picture of the old building. A brief history of the church is on the back of each plate. For those who have been feeling badly as they pass the pile of rubble on the site, we suggest contacting Mrs. B. H. Garmann of Pierce street who has a supply of the dinnerware.

"NOT A CREATURE IS STIRRING" applies to Christmas Eve only for all the area will be in a constant state of transiency with the coming of the holidays.
