MRS. BENJAMIN G. SNYDER

Peggy C. Gould Married Early Saturday Afternoon

Peggy Clifford Gould became the bride of Benjamin Gordon Snyder Saturday afternoon in services at St. James Church before the family and a small gathering of friends.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford B. Gould of Buckingham road, and the groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Snyder of Bloomington, Ill., repeated their vows before the Rev. Harold E. Towne.

Mrs. James H. O. Page came from La Grange, Ill., to be her sister's matron of honor. Other bridal attendants were Jo Anne Dasher, Virginia O'Brien, and Mrs. Walter Teninga of Chicago, Ill.

THE BRIDE wore the ivory satin gown worn by her sister at her nuptials and a pearl edged-cap made from lace worn previously by her mother.

The gown was styled with a full skirt, buttoned bodice and a Peter Pan collar. Panels of French illusion extended under the lace illusion cap to the hem of the gown. The bride carried white roses atop her white prayerbook.

Floor-length coral taffeta gowns were worn by the honor attendant and bridesmaids with short white gloves and face veils tied with ivy. They carried matching sprays of mums.

RICHARD SNYDER was his brother's best man. Ushers included another brother, Jack Snyder and Thomas Scott, of Bloomington, Ill., Kenneth Miller of Champlain, Ill., and Mr. Page.

Mrs. Gould chose an aqua lace and chiffon gown for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Snyder was in a gown of champagne lace and chiffon. Both she and Mrs. Gould wore camilla corsages.

A reception at Oakland Hills Country Club followed the ceremony. When the newlyweds left for a northern ski resort the new Mrs. Snyder was wearing a cocoa knit dress, lizard shoes and bag, a scroll hat and white roses. They will return to spend Christmas.

Students' Troth Told in Wyandotte

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Tucker of Wyandotte have announced the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Jane, to Thomas A. Maxwell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Maxwell of Henrietta street.

Both the bride-elect and her fiancée are students at Central Michigan College, Mt. Pleasant. A June 27 wedding is planned.

School Receptionist Reveals Engagement

The engagement of Rosemary Sarkisian, receptionist at the Birmingham high school, to John Haroutian was announced at a recent dinner dance at the Normandy in Pleasant Ridge.

Miss Sarkisian is a graduate of Royal Oak high school and her fiancée graduated from Pontiac high school. Wedding plans will be announced at a later date.

Girl Scout troops of the Jane Addams school held their annual Christmas party last Tuesday evening in the Parker school. Scout committees of girls planned the party and refreshments and invited mothers to join them for the evening. They presented their leader, Mrs. Albert Karakas with a poem which also served as a centerpiece on the tea table. Mrs. Brent Phillips of Groveland is relieving Mrs. Karakas who is taking a leave of absence from her Scout work.

Last Wednesday, Michael Allen, son of the Bill Allens of Groveland, celebrated his fifth birthday with a luncheon party in his home. The guests were Mrs. Andrew Stupka and son, Paul; Mrs. Bob Lift and Gail; Mrs. Harry Blair and Richie; Mrs. Allen Bradbury and David; Mrs. Jesse Birchard and Pam; Denny and Denise; Mrs. William Bohos and Bebe; and Mrs. Richard Swart.

Friday evening Mrs. Frank Olsen and Mrs. Alvin Robinson of Bembridge attended the cocktail and buffet supper party given by Mrs. Frank Novak in her home on Seminole. Mrs. Novak entertained 40 members of the Varsity bowling league.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Hans Olsen entertained 10 members of their pinocle club in their home on Bembridge with cocktails and a buffet supper. This group has played together for three years.

Mrs. Emmett Mills of Robinson celebrated the fourth birthday of her twin sons, Frankie and Rickie, Saturday with a party at her home. Christmas decorations and a Christmas cake interested the small guests who came to see movies and play games. Those present were Jimmy Burton, Peggy and Betsy Wolf, Timmy Morawski, Diane and Margaret Ann Boyle and Nancy Younkin.

Mrs. Madeline A. Boyd arrived from La Fort, Ind., Tuesday to visit her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne White of Glenwood. Mrs. Boyd will be at the White home until after the first of the year.

Tuesday Mrs. Stanley Crego opened her home on Tafford for the investiture ceremony of Brownie Troop 441. The 15 members attend Upton school but will go to Jane Addams when it is completed. Mrs. Crego was assisted by troop committee members Mrs. Russell Granger, Mrs. Newell Whitney and Mrs. Harry Rawlins. Mrs. Richard Shupe, Jr., of Gosh, is leader of the troop with Mrs. Hans Olsen, co-leader. Each girl was presented with a brownie head band by the committee.

Christmas Eve, Dr. and Mrs. Dale F. Christman will serve a traditional Christmas dinner in their home on Bembridge. Dr. and Mrs. John Thompson of Lapeer, and Mr. and Mrs. John Hopkins of Dearborn, will be their guests for this occasion. The three couples have this dinner together monthly.

HER FIANCE, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Pfeiffer of Westwood drive, is an alumnus of St. John's Military Academy, and received his master's degree earlier this month from Michigan State College.

Trotman, Cooper avenue and Mrs. William Watson of Hampton Blvd., were the hostesses for the preschool mothers at the Upton school last Wednesday evening for a program of carols, games and refreshments.

JANET McHATTIE

Punch Cups Tell Troth In Village

Engraved cards on the handles of the holiday punch cups revealed the engagement of long-time Bloomfield Village neighbors, Janet Louise McHattie and Carl Eric Pfeiffer.

The couple's troth was announced at a December 21 'at home' party given by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. McHattie of Westwood drive.

Janet, the first of last June's debutantes, graduated last spring from Kingwood School and is presently attending Mount Vernon Junior College, Washington, D. C.
