MRS. JOSEPH A. PONIATOWSKI

High Noon Nuptials Held At St. Hugo of the Hills

Joan Elizabeth Protheroe became the bride of Joseph A. Poniatowski in high noon nuptials Saturday at St. Hugo of the Hills Church. The Rev. Francis T. Stack performed the double-ring ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Andrew Proth. A coat dress of sand colored fabric trimmed in black velvet and black velvet accessories. They will reside in Royal Oak on their return.

The matron of honor's duties were performed by her sister, Mrs. Waverly J. Ellsworth, Jr., the bride's only attendant.

THE BRIDAL GOWN, worn previously by Mrs. Ellsworth at her nuptials, was styled with a bodice of Chantilly lace with a taffeta bertha and skirt with a chapel train. She wore Chantilly lace mitts and a matching lace cap and fingertip veil.

The bride carried a white orchid set in staphenitis and ivy leaves. Mrs. Ellsworth was in a plum colored gown of taffeta which she wore with a tulle stole and latched hat of wood violet. Shattered pink carnations formed her bouquet.

The best man was Richard Buchanan, Jr. W. J. Ellsworth, Jr. seated the guests.

The bride's mother wore a cork tail-length gown of slate blue Chantilly lace accented with a corsage of Hibiscus roses. Mrs. Lenia selected wine colored taffeta for her cocktail-length dress, and wore a pink rose corsage.
