

January 10 Concert Draws Birmingham's Young People

At eleven o'clock Saturday morning, January 10, Walter Pools will raise his baton on the first of a series of three Young People's Concerts at the Masonic Temple Auditorium.

With Laureline Collins as guest commentator, the series is designed to increase the appreciation of good music among young people of grade and high school age.

Among the sponsors are the Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills schools, the Women's Association and the Junior Women's Association of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and the Birmingham Junior League.

BOXHOLDERS INCLUDE Mrs. Roger Eyles and Mrs. Robert Wardrop who will attend with their children in an adjacent box will be Mrs. R. Jamison Williams, Mrs. Ralph L. Polk, Jr., and Mrs. William T. Gossett and their children.

Others making the trip in from this area accompanied by their youngsters will be Mrs. Winthrop Conrad, Mrs. John Rumsey, Mrs. Robert Graham, Mrs. E. Bert Shurby, Jr., Mrs. Robert Taylor, Mrs. Otis C. Thompson, and Mrs. William Crawford.

Although her children have now all grown up, Mrs. Fred L. Black plans to attend.

Also in the audience will be a

Bride's Brother and Uncle Perform Saturday Ceremony

The Rev. Fr. Robert Beh, the bride's brother, and the Rev. Fr. A. G. Mihm, the bride's uncle, stood before the altar at Holy Name Church to perform the nuptials of Pauline Frances Beh and Robert S. Sundborg at ten o'clock Saturday morning.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Beh of Lakeview avenue, repeated her vows in a gown of Alencon lace and net over satin. Her Juliet cap was fashioned of matching lace studded with pearls and holding a fingertip veil of illusion.

Stephanotis centered with a white orchid formed the bridal bouquet.

COMING FROM Pittsburgh, Pa., to be the maid of honor was Mary Francis Mihm. She and bridesmaids Mrs. Richard Wilson, Sally Krueger of Allen Park, and Joyce Middlebelt of Mt. Clemens were dressed in holiday colors with red velvet trim on their flared nylon net gowns. White crushed carnations and holly formed their headresses and bouquets.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chet Sundborg of Salem, Ore., asked his new brother-in-law, Joseph C. Beh, Jr., to be his best man.

Ushering were Pat O'Connor, Richard Wilson and Robert Shaffner.

Framing the entire wedding party on the altar were Christmas trees and poinsettia plants.

MRS. BEH CHOSE a delft blue lace gown for her daughter's work. A white carnation corsage completed her costume.

A breakfast and reception at the Park Shelton in Detroit followed the ceremony.

The couple will make their home in Salem, Ore.

WITH THE Collegians

Collegians and their dates arrived at the Devonshire road home of Rosemarie Taormina, Wayne University junior, Sunday evening, December 21, for Pi Kappa Sigma's annual Christmas party.

And a new era of peace and prosperity for our friends everywhere.

Owners Are Our Best "Salesmen"!

NEVER in our most enthusiastic moments could we tell all the wonderful things about Nash as forcefully as do owners. And the more they travel—the more they rave.

They talk about performance. They talk about the world's finest ride. They talk about the life-saving safety of Airfile Construction. They talk about beauty, about room, about luxury, about economy unmatched in the world.

Read these unsolicited reports about Nash. But—better yet, drive the Ambassador, Statesman or Rambler yourself.

"TAKES A BACK SEAT TO NONE"
"I have driven my 1952 Nash Ambassador 12,000 miles—my sixth Nash and by far the best. As Mr. Cahill says, 'It has the finest shockproof ride in the world'; also, a back seat to none on hills." ELWOOD H. LEU, Fond du Lac, Wis.

"30,000 MILES . . . $9.32 REPAIRS"
"After 30,000 miles of hard driving in less than one year . . . the total amount of repairs on my Nash Rambler had been $9.32, which to me is almost unbelievable." G. DARWIN KITCHEL, Huntington, W. Va.

"HELPED SAVE ME"
"Car turned over three times . . . I received only a few scratches—it helped save me . . . no better construction than Nash." ARTHUR S. HARRIGT, Baltimore, Maryland.

"32.3 MILES PER GALLON"
"I drove from Beloit to Minocqua, Wis., (275 miles) on 8.8 gallons . . . 32.3 miles per gallon . . . at 50 miles per hour." MARGARET ANKERSEN, Beloit, Wis.

"CAN'T BE BEAT"
"I have owned 14 Nash cars . . . they are the best cars I have ever driven and I've owned and driven nearly all other makes and models—for riding, economy and speed . . . they're tops." Chief of Police HAROLD WALLACE, Sikeston, Missouri.

AS A USED CAR, TOO, NASH IS TOP!
Here are actual statements from used car auctioneers:
"The 'hottest' car on Used Car Lots." O. K. AUTO AUCTION, Cleveland, Ohio.
"Among used car dealers the Nash line is always in demand . . . only complaint is we don't receive enough." WITTS' AUTO AUCTION, Decatur, Illinois.
