JOHN FAUVER TENDS TO THE SERIOUS BUSINESS of selecting the candy for the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce annual Children's Christmas party, December 6, while store manager Henry L. Sellers checks with John's decisions. The party, limited to Birmingham children in the first, second and third grades, will start at 9:30 a. m., Saturday morning at the Birmingham Theatre. Santa Claus will be there in person to highlight the hour program of cartoon movies. Candy will be distributed during the program. (Eccentric Staff Photo)

B'ham Resident Is Circuit Court Candidate

A. P. BOGUE

"Oakland county voters have been deprived of their full right of selection of their judges for the past 16 years," said Arthur P. Bogue today in announcing his candidacy for circuit court judge.

"As a practicing attorney for more than 30 years, I feel I am well qualified for the office of which I aspire. After having been prosecuting attorney here in 1931-34, I look upon the office of circuit judge as another opportunity to serve the people of this County," Bogue said.

"I believe that good government depends on the right of the voters to elect each judge from a group of qualified candidates. This has not been true in Oakland County since 1936. As a result all of our judges have held office for more than 16 years—one for 25 years."

Bogue is married and resides at 801 Bates St., Birmingham, is a member of the firm of Keeling, Bogue & Huthwaite in Pontiac. He was educated at DePauw University and the University of Michigan.

He has served as prosecuting attorney of Oakland county, special assistant attorney general in connection with the governor's election recount and is past president of the Oakland county bar association.

Bogue also has been a director of the YMCA and Oakland County Citizens League.

He is a first world war veteran, a member of the Masonic and Elks lodges and the High Twelve club.
