South American Home Awaits Couple Married On Saturday

Barbara Elizabeth Stecker became the bride of Laurence Edward Long Saturday, November 29, with only members of the family attending. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Walter George Stecker of Birmingham and the late Mr. Stecker. Mr. Long is the son of Daniel Long of Dorchester, Mass., and the late Mrs. Long.
The bride was gown in champagne taffeta with a matching cap and a shoulder-length veil. She carried a cascade of ivory fugi mums.
Her only attendant was Mrs. Paul Auchter of Margate, N. J.

Alpha Omicron Pi Marks Founding At Saturday Fete

Alpha Omicron Pi will celebrate its Founder's Day at the IngleSide Club at luncheon, December 6. The occasion will be the fifty-fifth birthday of the sorority which has chapters on college campuses in the United States and Canada.
For over twenty-one years the sorority has been affiliated with Mary Breckenridge in the Frontier Nursing Service centered in the Kentucky mountains.
In conjunction with this service the sorority supports the social service department. In the early days most of the work was done on horseback as a means of transportation but now the Jeep may be seen traveling over the roads and streams gathering data for the medical service.

ALPHA OMICRON PI has also contributed to the Frontier Nursing Committee and have become known for supporting their rehabilitation program in France since World War II.
The arrangements for the Birmingham members to join the Detroit Alumnae Chapter for this celebration are being handled by Mrs. Hollister Mabley.
Wednesday evening the local alumnae chapter met in the home of Mrs. Tom Ward on Lincoln road. The president, Mrs. Rufus Martin, sounded the call for warm clothing and Xmas packages for the families in Kentucky under the jurisdiction of the Frontier Nursing Service.

Teenager Will Operate Gallery's Holiday Shop

Gwen Luce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Luce of Bloodfield Hills, will direct the operation of the Holiday Shop, a gallery for teenagers at the Little Gallery on East Maple road.
The Holiday shop, educational as well as fun, in its presentation, will be the scene of student shows as well as a display of art objects with a youthful appeal.
Highlight of the shop during the Christmas season will be a sparkling white tree laden with articles chosen by Peggy de Salle, Little Gallery operator, on her recent trip abroad.

Christmas Show At Little Gallery

"Home To Michigan for Christmas" is the theme of the exhibit at the Little Gallery which will run through the month of December.
As indicated by the title, the show is a collection of work done by Michigan artists, many of them students at Michigan State College.
On display are abstract oils by Erling Brammer and Murray Jones, oil paintings by George Wechsler, and oils and enamels by Katherine Winkler, all MSC students.
Included are water colors by Charles Culver and ink drawings by Carlos Lopez, Francis de Erdeby, a former Michigan artist has sent drawings and oils and Basil Hawkins is represented by water colors.
The exhibit continues with sculpture in wood and stone by Leonard Schwartz, linear sculpture by Lindsay Decker, ceramics by Irwin Whitaker and jewelry by localities Alicia Mackie and William Whitney.
