

Students Will Exchange Vows Dec. 20 at Methodist Church

In between studying for exams at Michigan State College where both are students, Marilyn Hunt and John Swett have managed to complete plans for their December 20 nuptials.

The pair will repeat their vows in the First Methodist Church at 3:30 p.m. Marilyn is the daughter of Mrs. Melvin C. Hart of Villa road and the late Mr. Hart. The prospective groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Swett, Jr., of Muskegon Heights.

Marilyn has asked Barbara Chesley to be her maid of honor. Attendants will include Jane Mallory, Kappa Alpha Theta sorority sister Janet Richter, her sister-in-law Mrs. Robert Hart, and the groom-to-be's sister Louella Swett.

James Lovell will come from Washington D. C. to be the best man. Guests will be seated by Bill Wells, Floy Grafton, William Zimmer and Arthur Fairbanks.

PARTIES GIVEN for the bride-elect include a dessert shower given by Mrs. Glen Waggoner and Mrs. Thomas Schooley, Mrs. Everett Allen's buffet supper and shower, a dessert shower hosted by Mrs. Judson Peckham and Mrs. William Crawford, Mrs. Marshall Hebblewhite's shower, and a luncheon and shower given by Mrs. Willis Mallory and Janet Mallory.

Barbara Chesley will host the spinster dinner Saturday evening, December 17, in her home on Willis avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Swett will entertain the wedding party and family at the rehearsal dinner

Dinner Party Fetes December Nuptials

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Burlingame of South Glenhurst were hosts to a dinner party Saturday night honoring their son, Dan's fiancée, Miss Beverly Howell of Park Forest, Illinois.

Among those at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Howell of Snyder, New York, parents of the bride to be; Dr. and Mrs. Ross Huns of Ann Arbor; Natalie Howell, James Erwin, Frank Dailey of Indianapolis, Gail Burlingame, University of Michigan freshman, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Wessels, and Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Wessels.

The wedding of Beverly and Dan Burlingame will be December 27th, in Buffalo, New York. They will make their home in Park Forest, Illinois.

at Devon Gables on the eve of the nuptials.

Reviewer Is Child Study Group Guest

Mrs. Gail Jordan Tousey, book reviewer, has been selected to head the December child-study group meeting of the Birmingham chapter of the AAUW.

The meeting is scheduled for eight o'clock Tuesday evening, December 9, at the Community House. Mrs. Tousey's subject will be "Books Tell The Story", an informal condensation of important books written and illustrated for children.

Admission is free and the public, particularly young mothers, are cordially invited. A question and answer session is part of the program.

MRS. TOUSEY came to Detroit as a member of the faculty of the Wayne University department of speech and has had experience speaking before many civic and professional organizations.

Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Social Briefs

Continuing her series of luncheon entertaining, Mrs. Harry D. Wise of Williamsbury road has planned a December 4 luncheon at the DAC, and a December 12 gathering at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Phelps of Walnut Lake road spent last week in Pittsburgh, Pa., where they attended the International Music Festival, Nov. 24-30. Mr. Phelps, Michigan delegate to the festival, is a past president of the Michigan Composers Club, and is chairman of the American Composition division of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd F. Honig and their children, Jr., Dale and Judy, of Lynchburg, Va., were the holiday weekend guests of their parents, Col. and Mrs. Raymond C. Chenuault of Park street.
