MRS. CLYDE EVERETT THOMPSON

Heirloom Lace Cap Worn For Thompson-Mosby Vows

A cap of heirloom duchess lace from her mother's wedding dress was worn by Nan Mosby when she stood at the altar of Christ Church Cranbrook Friday noon.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert Mosby of Shirley drive, and Second Lieutenant Clyde Everett Thompson repeated their vows before the Rev. Robert L. DeWitt.

Lt. Thompson is the son of Mrs. G. E. Thompson of Iola, Kansas, and the late Mr. Thompson.

For her high noon nuptials the bride wore a gown of pure silk taffeta in a candlelight shade. An illusion yoke was edged in scallops of Alençon lace and her bouffant skirt fell into a short train. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies.

MARY E. GRINDLEY was the bride's only attendant. Her gown of winter red taffeta was topped with a pearl trimmed Eton jacket. Pearls accented her face veil, and she carried a bouquet of rhabrum lilies.

Robert E. Lacy came from Iola to be the best man. The bride's brother, James Robert Mosby, Jr., and William Cargill Sproull, Jr., seated the guests.

Oakland Hills Country Club was the scene of a luncheon for the wedding party and guests, immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. Mosby was in grey pure silk taffeta with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of white cymbidium orchids.

The groom's mother wore steel blue silk shantung with a pink hat and a rose cymbidium corsage.

MAKING THE TRIP from Kansas for the nuptials was Miss Charlotte Thompson, the groom's sister; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald W. McDowell, the groom's sister and brother-in-law; Mrs. Josh Wallace, the bride's grandmother; Mrs. Wade Wilcox, the bride's aunt; Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Warner and son Jay; and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thompson and son Jim.

Also present were Nancy Hampton of Mission, Kansas, Miss Jean Stoneman of Kansas City, Mo., and Julie Hazard of Rochester, N. J., all sorority sisters of the bride.

AFTER A SOUTHERN wedding trip the newlyweds will make their home in St. Clemens where Lt. Thompson is stationed at Selfridge Field.

For traveling the new Mrs. Thompson wore a navy blue suit with red and navy accessories.

African Question Subject of Class

Mrs. F. G. Garrison of Franklin will review the problems of South Africa in a talk accompanied by maps and charts at the December 9 meeting of the Ruth Shain International Relations Class.

Mrs. Garrison will stress the critical 'apartheid' question and the current colonial uprisings in Kenya.

The session at the Community House will also include a short discussion by Mrs. Shain of the present NATO situation and the Indian proposal for a Korean armistice.

Women's Club Juniors

Mrs. F. G. Garrison will give a travel talk at the December 9 meeting of the Junior Department of the Birmingham Women's Club. The group will meet at the home of Betty Bricker, 675 Ridgeway road.

U. of D. Women's Guild Hear Musical Program

The University of Detroit Choral Society will present a program of Christmas music at the next monthly meeting of the U. of D. Women's Guild.

Members will meet at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon, December 9, in the woman's gym at the Memorial building.

On the agenda is the January 17 bridge party for the Rev. Joseph A. Foley, S. J. Scholarship. Mrs. Cyril A. Ward, chairman has called a special meeting of her various committees to complete plans for the first scholarship party which the Guild intends making an annual affair.
