NEWS FROM Southeast of Birmingham

By JANE STAGG
Lincoln 4-0790

Last weekend the B. C. Southwells returned after a week hunting near Cheboygan with a 225 pound, four-point buck. They also looked over their new cabin which is being built on the Black River. Southwell's sister, Mrs. Marion Cunningham, and her four children visited them at their home on Cooper avenue over the Thanksgiving holiday.

FAR FROM THE COMMONPLACE...

At no extra cost!

This is a CHARM house, extraordinary! The charm of the setting, the architecture, the interior blend gracefully for individuality and character. Situated in beautiful Foxcroft, this custom home is protected against duplication—will grow in value with the years. It is delightfully decorated in Early-American motif, yet planned for the simplicity of modern living.

Spacious 30 ft. living, dining area, 2 large bedrooms, paneled library, bath and extra lavatory. Screened patio porch—the unusual charm of the kitchen and breakfast area will thrill you. The extras include carpeting, awnings, storm, screens, Dishmaster, beautifully landscaped yard. Wing Lake and Vaughan Schools. Low township taxes only.

MISS COURTNEY

THE ENGAGEMENT of Barbara Courtney to Bevan Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ferry B. Allen of North Glenhurst drive, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. LaVerne Courtney of Highland Park. The bride-elect is a graduate of Michigan State College where she was affiliated with Alpha Phi. Her fiance is a member of Phi Delta Theta at MSC.

School Systems To Be Compared

"How American Schools Compare with those in Europe" will be the topic of a lecture sponsored by the City and Country School PTA Tuesday evening, December 9. The talk will begin at 8:30 p.m. at the school in Bloomfield Hills. Joseph Matthesius, faculty member, will be the speaker.

Matthesius was formerly director of teacher training for U. S. occupied Germany. In 1949 he made a study of a hundred American schools under the auspices of the U. S. State Department.

The book in which Matthesius reported his observations was recommended for reading by European school teachers by U. S. High Commissioner John J. McCloy.
