

Christ Church Cranbrook Scene Of Saturday Rites

Double ring vows were exchanged late Saturday afternoon in St. Dunstan's chapel of Christ Church Cranbrook by Marcia Kathryn Wentz and Robert Marquardt Roth. The Rev. Robert DeWitt read the service.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan W. Wentz of Ferndale street, was attended by Mrs. Robert J. Carnahan.

The ballerina-length bridal gown was of Chantilly lace over satin. Heirloom lace belonging to her mother formed the bride's Juliet cap and held a fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a white orchid on her preribon.

THE MATRON OF HONOR was in a ballroom of emerald green lace and tulle with a matching lace bolero. A matching lace veil was worn with carnations in her hair, and she carried a bouquet of white shattered carnations and ivy.

Thomas F. Roth was his brother's best man. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Roth of West Brown street. Ushering were John E. Roth, Jr., another brother of the groom; Justin Giltner, the groom's cousin; and Alan W. Wentz, Jr., the brother of the bride.

Mrs. Wentz wore a slate blue tulle dress with a matching hat, dark blue accessories, and a white cybindium orchid corsage. Mrs. Roth wore a green orchid corsage with a cedar stick and lace dress and black accessories.

MRS. ROBERT MARQUEADANT ROTH

AN INFORMAL RECEPTION in the church parlors immediately followed the vows. When the couple left on their southern wedding trip the bride was wearing a cocoa brown suit with dark brown accessories and white feather hat.

After mid-December Mr. and Mrs. Roth will be at home on West Greenwich drive.

Franklin News

By ANGELA DADSON
MAYfair 6-2441

Mr. and Mrs. Watson Kinney will be hosts at cocktails in their home on Village lane preceding the annual Woodcreek Christmas dance, at the Western Golf club on Friday, Dec. 7. Their guests will all be from Detroit.

Among the guests of the Arthur Banfields at their home on Wellington road, for cocktails prior to the dance will be Mr. and Mrs. Richard Norwall, Mr. and Mrs. Schlotterbeck, Mr. and Mrs. William Whitman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hauser and Mr. and Mrs. Clare Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Semon Knudsen, of Bingham road, are in Europe on a business and pleasure trip. They left early in November on the Queen Elizabeth with Wiesbaden, Germany, as their destination. They are now in London, England, awaiting their departure on the liner Liberty.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Peslar have returned to their home on Woodside drive after a vacation trip which included visits with friends in Brecksville, Ohio, Philadelphia and Summit, N. J. and a stop at Williamsburg, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Thureson, of Old Colony road, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on Nov. 26 while vacationing in New Orleans.

Friends and relatives attended the Thanksgiving dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gavie in celebration of their silver anniversary which fell on Nov. 25. The Gavies were hosts again on Saturday at an anniversary buffet supper party at their home on Ovid court. Their guests on this occasion were 14 college classmates.

Barbara Brown, daughter of the Stanley Browns, Saturday was young hostess to 13 friends on a hayride to celebrate her eighth birthday. The ride was followed by a party, birthday cake and all, at the Outland tea room. Her guests were Don Lee and Ruth Meyers, from Detroit; Rulaine Hacker, Angela Ann Dadson, Cathie Carner, Janice Barker, Charlene Newhouser, Bonnie Jean Hauch, Blanche Albert, Quannah Winchell, Mimi Schlotterbeck, all of Franklin.

Charlene Newhouser will be nine on Dec. 10. Carol Emmertling celebrates on the same day, when she becomes eight years old. Janice Faulkner will be eight on Christmas day. Phillipa Chick will be six Dec. 27.

Phillip Bonds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bonds, was six last Sunday. He was young host to nine boys from his class at Franklin school.

The Garden club meets at 8 p.m. tonight at the Riverwood drive home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell. There will be a discussion of Christmas decorations for the home.

The December meeting of St. Anne's guild will be a Christmas luncheon and card party for the members, to be held at the home of Mrs. Leo Wischman, 25330 Franklin Park drive, at noon on Wednesday, Dec. 10. Assisting the hostess with refreshments will be Mrs. Leo Burr and Mrs. William Wischman.

The Franklin Cemetery Auxiliary will meet at noon on Thursday, Dec. 11 at the Franklin Community Hall, for the annual Christmas party and short business meeting. Plans made about a year ago, when vandalism was a considerable problem, have culminated in the completion of living quarters on the grounds for William Fraser, the sexton. A building on the property is now remodelled complete with plumbing, lighting and other necessary facilities.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Garwood and children, formerly of Redford township, now settled in their new home on Balsam drive. Daughter Marilyn is a student at Farmington. Ronald and Kathryn are fourth graders at Franklin school. Garwood is with the Northwestern Electric company in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Reske have moved from Detroit into their new place on 14-mile road. Reske is a vice-president of the Detroit Mantel and Tile company.

Localites Graduate At MSC Tuesday

EAST LANSING — Candidates for bachelor and advanced degrees at Michigan State College at the end of the fall term, December 9, include six from the Birmingham area.

They are Allen Bevan, 717 Glenhurst; Peter Tai Greig, 27160 Fourteen Mile road, Franklin; Carl Eric Pfeiffer, 515 Westwood; Mary Elizabeth Smith, Franklin; George T. Trumbull, Dunstan road, Bloomfield Hills; and Robert L. Williams, 770 Southlawn.

Commencement ceremonies will be held at eight o'clock Tuesday evening in the college auditorium with Dr. John S. Everton, president of Kalamazoo College, delivering the commencement address.

PARENT NEWS

TEACHER ASSN.

To be included in this column, items must reach The Eccentric by Friday noon the week before publication.

Christmas Music For PTO Program

The Bloomfield Hills PTO will hold its annual Christmas program at eight o'clock Friday evening, December 12 at the George chapel of Kirk-in-the-Hills.

The fifty-voice senior high school choir, directed by Clarence Luchman, will present a three-part program with Kenneth Ollis of the English department the narrator. Music will include a carol service, festive holiday music and Christmas compositions by great masters.

RIMA NICKELL, featured soloist, will sing "O Holy Night", accompanied by Sally Boyd on the flute, and choir and organ background music.

Stanley Ross will be the guest accompanist on the organ.

Carols Played by Band

The December 3 meeting of Poppleton PTA centered around the Christmas theme with the school band presenting Christmas carols. Refreshments were served by the room mothers.

Michigan First Aid
251 East Nine Mile,
Ferndale
Jordan 4-6447

Babson Speaker Due At B'ham High School

Gordon M. Trim, director of admissions at Babson Institute of Business Administration, Wellesley, Mass., will be at Birmingham High School Tuesday, December 9. Trim will speak and counsel those boys interested in making business their career. A specialist in the field of vocational guidance, Trim will explain to the interested the requirements for entrance to Babson where students carry a special schedule of courses which permit them to complete four years of college in three years under an intensive program of study.

ERGASTERION OF CRANBROOK PRESENTS

As its 24th Christmas Show

Ian Hay's hilarious comedy of school life

HOUSEMASTER

Friday, December 5
Saturday, December 6
at 8:30

Cranbrook Auditorium
All seats reserved by news at Shan's or call MI 4-1090

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

HANDKERCHIEFS

YOU'LL TAKE PRIDE IN GIVING

COSTUME JEWELRY

MANY WONDERFUL Gift ITEMS

Items from $1.00 Sets to $14.95

The F. J. Mulholland Co.

SHE'S WISHING FOR a Lingerie Christmas

The month before Christmas . . . and all through her dreams are running visions of exquisite lingerie . . . our delicately sheer nylon tricots and crepes . . . flowing rayon knits and crepes . . . and silken-smooth cottons. The last word in femininity . . . a frothy gift of lingerie from our so very beautiful group . . . will remind her of you always.

all-nylon satin slip all-nylon chantilly lace on nylon tricot

by Artemis

Chantilly lace that won't shrink because it's all-nylon, makes a beautifully fitted bodice in shape and give long wear. Matching Chantilly lace on the skirt is dramatically wide. A superb slip of finest nylon tricot in white, or champagne. Sizes 32 to 40.

$8.95

all-nylon Rose Fresco gown jacket

by Artemis

Bedecked with all-nylon Rose Fresco lace and pretty ribbon ties, this gown jacket has shirred detail at the shoulder. Fine multifilament acetate and rayon crepe in pink, white, or seafoam blue. Small, medium, large.

$3.95

Visit our store
MEN'S NIGHT
Monday Evening, December 8

The F. J. Mulholland Company

OPEN FRIDAY EVENING TILL NINE