PLANNING AN APRIL wedding are Jane Geisler and Sgt. George E. Rogers. Their truth was revealed by Jane's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Jerome Geisler of Wing Lake road. The bride-elect is a graduate of Mercy College, Detroit. Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Rogers of Highland Park, served eleven months in Korea with the 187th Airborne Regimental C.O.M.B.A.T. Team. Their wedding will take place in Holy Name Church.

Snyder-Mott Troth Told

Planning to be married in Washington, D.C. in the Spring are Margaret Cecelia Snyder, daughter of Mrs. Herbert R. Snyder of Gary, Ind. and the late Mr. Snyder, and F. Douglas Mott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Mott of Pilgrim road.

The announcement of their engagement was made by the bride-elect's mother, Margaret. She is a graduate of Smith College. She spent her junior year in Paris studying at the Sorbonne. Her fiance graduated from Cranbrook and Dartmouth College where he was a member of Alpha Delta Phi. He is now with the Defense Department in Washington.

B'ham MOMS Party Is This Evening

Unit 3 of the Birmingham MOMS' Club are holding a bridge party at eight o'clock Thursday evening, February 21, at the home of Mrs. H. H. Richardson, 585 Pleasant street. Mrs. Edward T. Appel and Mrs. Frank Smith will be assistant hostesses. Mrs. Earl Cunningham, president of the unit, will preside over the brief business meeting which precedes the party. Each member is asked to bring a small, wrapped inexpensive prize. All members of men now in service are cordially invited to attend.

Women's Club Members Meet Tuesday Noon

The monthly departmental meetings of the Birmingham Women's Club will be held Tuesday, February 19.

The Fine Arts department will meet at the home of Mrs. W. D. Bricker, 675 Ridgedale, for luncheon at 12:30. Members of the luncheon committee are Mrs. F. H. Knowlton, Mrs. Charles Thomas and Mrs. T. Plunkett. Chairman of the day, Mrs. D. D. Langlois, will introduce the speaker, Mrs. Betty Roberts. Mrs. Roberts has selected the topic "America Is a Tune".

MRS. W. U. JOHNSTONE of 351 N. Woodward will host a one o'clock luncheon for members of the American Home department. She will be assisted by Mrs. W. D. Bricker and Mrs. Harry Allen. Following luncheon Mrs. John B. Duffy will speak on "First Ladies Since 1860".

A 12:30 O'CLOCK luncheon at the home of Mrs. Seymour Adams, 1088 Rivewood, is scheduled for the Literature department. Mrs. Reginald Davis, Mrs. E. H. Peterson, Mrs. Andrew Dryden and Mrs. John Martin are members of the luncheon committee. Speaker Mrs. William O. Merrill will speak on "Mississippi Valley Conference Highlights".

News About GIRL SCOUTS

The Annual Girl Scout Father and Daughter Banquet on February 9 was attended by 360. The Community House was turned over to the Scouts, and every over to be filled to capacity. A buffet supper was served at 8:00 p.m. and was followed by group singing led by Mrs. Carol Hill. Barbara Kellum and Connie Kellogg of Troop 4, Quanton School, acted as addresses of ceremony and introduced the guests at the Speakers' Table and decorations were flags of other countries and paper doll Girl Scouts. They were made by Troop 12 of Baldwin School.

The square dancing which followed was called by Mr. Irwin White of Franklin Village. He donated his services and furnished the records and P.A. system. The party ended at 11:30 p.m. the fathers and daughters agreed that it had been an outstanding success.

Mrs. George Hoke was chairman of the evening and expressed her appreciation to Mr. White and to the Community House for their wholehearted cooperation.

TROOP 51—ADAMS SCHOOL

The fifth-graders in Troop 51 had an ice-skating party at the Terry Rink and their parents met at the home of their leader, Mrs. R. W. Reese who served hot chocolate and cookies. At last week's meeting, an International Friendship Program was held. A very interesting talk was given by Mrs. James A. Weddell about living conditions in England. Mrs. Weddell's daughter, Ann, is a member of Troop 51. Both were born in England and only came to the United States two years ago. They were very able to compare living conditions there with ours in the United States.

The Scouts were presented with their World Friendship pins and identification emblems. Refreshments were served by Pat Ackerman and Carol Crawford. The members of this troop assisted in the dining room during the recent Adams' School Frolic. For this service, they will receive their troop crest. Last Saturday evening, the majority of the troop attended the Father and Daughter Banquet at the Community House. The following girls were accompanied by their Dads: Pat Crawford, Katren Gilray, Gwen Jackson, Margaret, Diane Macalpin, Mary McKee, Rolinda Reese, Ann Smith, Rebecca Wagner, Judy Wakefield, Starr Walker and Carol Westof.

TROOP 35—PIERCE SCHOOL
Novel Valentine gifts were made by the Brownies of Troop 35 as gifts for their mothers. The Bony Florist contributed flower pots in which the Brownies placed honeysuckle branches. The branches were decorated with heart cut from red construction paper, and the pots were trimmed with red paper and white napkins tied with a white ribbon bow.

TROOP 52—PIERCE SCHOOL
Etched copper pins were the Valentine gifts which the Brownies of Troop 52 made for their mothers at their meeting of February 5. They also played games and had a relay race. Jane Thompson was the hostess and served chocolate cupcakes.

TROOP 54—PIERCE SCHOOL
Serbie Sandra Heflin reports that officers were elected for this troop. Lenora Alford will serve as president, and treasurer is Janice Bordinat.

TROOP 19—BALDWIN
This troop had a Valentine party and presented each guest with heart-shaped favors which they made at a previous meeting.

Scheyers Plan a Unique Program

Former Birmingham residents Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Scheyer are returning to the area to present a program at the City and Country School in Bloomfield Hills Sunday afternoon, February 24. The program represents years of work in this country and in Holland, compiling material for a cultural portrait of the Netherlands in the 16th and 17th centuries. It is a new design of presenting a cultural period, correlating music, poetry and art in one performance. Adding to the color of the presentation will be Dr. Scheyer's rich collection of art slides.
