Barnum Junior High News

Recently 12 new girls entered Barnum. Seventh graders are Judy Smith, Memphis, Tenn.; Dorothy Rich, Detroit; Andrea Southworth, Monroe; Judy Krenn, Detroit. Eighth grade girls are Gretchen Klein, Grosse Pointe; Barbara Small, Rockford, Ill.; Paula Paris, Detroit; and Penny Todd, Elmhurst, Ill. In the ninth grade are Nancy Lees, Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio; Suzanne Taylor, Louisville, Ky.; and Elizabeth and Edith Williams, twins, from Dayton, Ohio.

There was a National Junior Honor Society meeting Wednesday, Feb. 6, and the purpose was to discuss the eligibility of the members. Points of eligibility discussed were service, Scholarship, and Citizenship.

Hugh Loveland takes 60 ninth grade boys to Baldwin school the first and second hours each day and they are divided into two groups. The first section has gym, and the other mechanical drawing. The seventh period 50 boys go over. Thirty-five have occupational studies and the 15 boys have study hall. In the occupational studies, boys have movies, hear speakers and take excursions.

BARNUM DEFEATED Cranbrook 36-19 Feb. 5. The win continued Barnum's winning streak to seven straight. The starting team was Dick Morgan, Bob Goldsmith, Ed Peters, Bill Watkinson, and Capt. Dick Sheldon. Sheldon was high point man with 12 points. Student Council elections were held Thursday, Feb. 7. The students filed in the gym and after the skits and speeches returned to their homerooms to vote.

The results were president, Dan Fraser; vice president, Stan Rossignault; secretary, Trudy McKenney; and a treasurer, Carol Howlett.

Defense Stamps Purchased by Quorton Students

Each Tuesday morning from 8:30 to 9 a.m. defense stamps are sold to Quorton school students.

David Muhltner and Kent Cardell recently represented the school's defense council at a meeting in Baldwin school in which all present were urged to promote the selling of defense stamps and bonds in their schools.

The stamp savings plan at Quorton school has been made possible by the cooperation of the defense council, school faculty and the P.T.A. Selling of stamps is not on a competitive basis between individuals or classes but serves as a means of helping the government and providing savings training for the children.

P.T.A. members are in charge of the sale with two mothers selling on the first floor and one assigned to the second. Mrs. Orville L. Beardsley is chairman with Mrs. Marshall Keating, Mrs. J. Edward Gill, Mrs. Burely Laurimore and Mrs. William A. Zabriskie assisting.

Troy Five Downs Avondale 57-37

Troy high school's basketball squad notched its eighth win of the season Friday evening, defeating Avondale 57-37.

The victory put the Colts into a three-way tie for second place in the Oakland 'B' league with a 4-3 record. Next game is Friday evening at Fitzgerald. In a previous tilt this season between these teams, Troy won 47-41.
