With Community House Roll Call contributions nearing the half-way mark of the $35,000 goal, nearly 600 volunteer workers began their house-to-house canvass Monday morning.

Some 50 section captains entered workers at coffee meetings where the Roll Call material and instructions were distributed. Mrs. Paul Wagner, co-chairman with Frederic C. Few of this year's Roll Call, said many of the canvassers began contacting resi-

George McCann, Harry Wesch, Wayne Mortimer and Ernest Winborn, had been named to cover the business area.

THESE, WITH a number of volunteer workers, have begun their calls to stores and offices. Mrs. Wagner and Few said that reports on activities of solicitors will not be compiled until the final day of the drive, March 3. Captains are asked to turn their reports in at the Community House that day from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. They, with Mrs. Carlton H. Isley, Community House director, stressed that mail contributions will greatly aid the task of the solicitors and asked the cooperation of all in making early contributions. Checks should be made payable to the Birmingham Community House.

Two Tilts Lost
 By Christ Church
 With but three weeks remaining before Birmingham YMCA church league play-offs, teams are striving to strengthen their positions for play-off spots.
 In games played last week, Christ Church Cranbrook dropped two contests. The first was to Embury Methodist, 46 to 23, when Al Fawcett of the South Woodward Avenue five sank 18 points to give his squad an early lead which they held throughout.
 IN ITS SECOND GAME of the week, Christ Church was badly outclassed in its first-half play with Lathrup Townsite when the Community group led by Bill Wilson took a 28 to 7 half-time lead and stretched it as the game progressed. Final score was 48 to 27.
 The third game of the week saw St. James Episcopal Church roll over Southfield United Presbyterian Church 60 to 22.

Deadlock Still Exists in Local YMCA League
 Auto Dealers retained their first place tie with North Chevrolet in the local YMCA league with a 65 to 38 win over the Birmingham Merchants who were playing Monday evening under the banner of Charles R. Peck and Son.
 NORTH CHEVROLET ALL-STARS were behind for two quarters in their game with F. J. Mulholland before they broke out in front and went on to rack up their seventh victory, 60-35.
 Next Monday F. J. Mulholland meets Auto Dealers at 7 p.m. and North Chevrolet takes on Birmingham Merchants at 8 p.m.
