Cranbrook Hockey Team Kept Busy
Having played five games in the last 11 days, the Cranbrook varsity hockey team is still hoping for continued cold weather and ice to complete a full season of play.

Friday Cranbrook hosted the Gage and Drummy Oldmobile team from Royal Oak and after a very hotly contested game, won 6-5 on Howard Purney's goal in a sudden death overtime period.

Gage and Drummy scored two goals in the final moments of regulation time to tie the score and force the overtime.

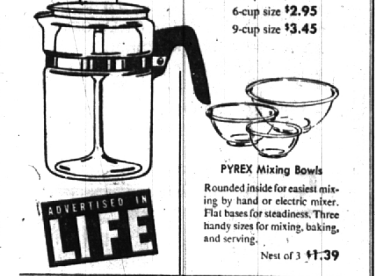

Feb. 16 Cranbrook defeated the Housekeepers of Pontiac 6-4. The outcome of the game was never in doubt as Larry Ashby pulled the "hat trick", scoring three goals.
