St. James Cage Team in Church League Lead

St. James Episcopal church moved into undisputed possession of first place in the Birmingham YMCA Church league last week with a resounding 49 to 41 win over First Methodist Church.

In the first quarter, First Methodist enjoyed a 7 to 4 lead on baskets by Bill Sickenberger and Dick Snell.

Both teams seemed to find the range in the second quarter when 11 boys figured in scoring and St. James moved ahead 24 to 22.

LOSS OF Bob Gasser because of a foot injury in this quarter hampered the First Methodist Church offensive and partially accounted for its loss of the lead.

The third quarter ended with both teams deadlocked at 33 points each.

In the final quarter, Bud DeLoria of St. James broke away for three consecutive lay-up shots that put the Grey and Purple in the lead.

DeLoria and Fred Sanders led the St. James offense with 35 points between them while Dick Snell garnered 12 for First Methodist.

First Presbyterian scored first in its game with Southfield United Presbyterian and stayed in front to win, 44 to 25.

Dick Emery scored 16 points for First Presbyterian while Jack Gould dropped in 11 for Southfield.

In the second game of the week for St. James, the Maple Avenue boys won over Embury Church in easy fashion to retain their hold on first place.
