

Players Stage One-Act Dramas Saturday Night

Not ones to let the grass grow under their feet, members of the Village Players are preparing three one-act plays for their own entertainment Saturday evening, March 1.

The curtain will rise first on "Over Laid" with Clement A. Penrose, Jr., directing actors Lawson Tabor, Mrs. Dean Coffin and Granville Ryan.

Mrs. Walter Herdrich will assist the director, and Mrs. George Fox will handle the props.

TREADING THE boards in "The Green Convertible" will be Mrs. Horton Allen, Jane Bartholomew, Mrs. Sidney Oldberg, Russell Richardson and Thomas H. Sheehan.

Mrs. Gilbert Gove will be assisted in her directing efforts by Mrs. Richard Remer, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Greiner. The cast is composed of Mrs. Robert Wyatt, Franklin Fricker and Eliot Higgins.

Mrs. Frederick Garrison will provide the props.

WILLIAM KEGEL is stage manager for the evening. Mrs. Stanley Hood is in charge of scenery, and Mrs. Hans Schölin and Mrs. Lane Bishop will oversee the make-up.

The social committee is planning an "afterglow" to follow the plays.

News About GIRL SCOUTS

A SMALL REPLICA of a house bearing the names of the couple who are the centerpieces of the table and made the betrothal known.

Margaret is a graduate of Baldwin High School and received her bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Michigan.

Her fiancé is a graduate of Amherst College where his fraternity was Delta Upsilon.

The wedding will take place in June.

WITH THE Collegians

At a recent ceremony Sue Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mason of Frank street, was pledged to Kappa Kappa Gamma at the University of Michigan where she is a freshman science student.

Word has been received from Ann Arbor that Helen Schimke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Schimke of Goldensate drive, schools, has been pledged to Gamma Phi Beta at the University of Michigan.

Max Cornell, senior at Albion college, has just been named assistant station manager of the college radio station, WANK.

Max, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold P. Cornell of Townsend avenue, is majoring in Spanish at Albion.

James Laidig will be in the cast of the all-campus musical revue "Deuces Wild" to be presented by the students of Cornell College, Mt. Vernon, Iowa, March 6. Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Laidig of Birwood road.

Among the members of the cast for the Ohio University Theatre production of the three-act comedy "The Silver Whistle" March 4-8 is Richard Jeffers of Suffield road.

Janice McLean of Parkway drive, Beverly Hills, has recently been pledged to Delta Gamma at Ohio Wesleyan University where she is a freshman.

Another new pledge of Delta Gamma at Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, is Joanna Tait, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Tait of Latham road.

Joanna, a freshman, is majoring in fine arts. She attended Kingswood where she was president of her junior and senior class.

Among the 125 couples at Marygrove College's Junior Prom Friday evening were Joann Mulholland of Farmington and her escort, James Holden of Birmingham.

Dean Yocom

Teacher of piano and voice

Open for private parties and entertainment

STUDIO GRINNELL'S - BIRMINGHAM

MI 4-5135

Res. MI 2-1026

NORTH WOODWARD MEMBERS of Kappa Kappa Gamma have reserved Thursday, March 6, for their Spring project, a fashion show and tea to be held at the Community House. Shown discussing the arrangements are Mrs. Frank McInnis, Mrs. Guy D. Briggs, Jr., Mrs. Robert L. Lovelace and Mrs. M. Craig Miller. (Use Wheeler Photo)

Mrs. Kopp to Address Club Tuesday Night

Birmingham Child Study Club members will hear Mrs. Harriet Kopp speak when the group meets Tuesday evening, March 4, at the home of Mrs. W. H. Binns, 104 Linden road.

Mrs. Kopp, head of speech correction in the Birmingham schools, will speak on "Speech Problems." A discussion period will follow her talk.

Mrs. Kopp came to Birmingham from the University of Michigan where she was on the graduate faculty, teaching speech correction and teaching the deaf.

She has also taught at Columbia University and during the war years was with the Bell Telephone Laboratories working on visible speech development.

Have You Met . . .

The new residents of 1200 Yorkshire? They are Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Hesse and their family.

Hugo, Jr., 18; Rosemary, 16; Peter, 15; Patricia, 12; and Mary Barbara, 5. The Hesses moved from Royal Oak in December. Mr. Hesse is a roofing contractor.

MRS. FRED STEFFENS and Mrs. Arthur Farrell will assist Mrs. Binns, Mrs. W. E. Davies, president, has announced that the business meeting will begin at 8:15 p.m.

B'ham Family to Japan

Leaving for Japan March 3rd are Mrs. Paul Gleye of Lakewood road and her son, Paul, Jr. There they will join Capt. Gleye, and make their home in Yokohama.

Shine in a Fashion made-FOR YOU . . . BY YOU!

"BOTANY" BRAND CERTIFIED FABRICS FOR HOME SEWING

Sew your own own charming modern styles with this magnificent fabric— heaven-made for today's fashions!

"Botany" Brand Certified Fabrics are first choice with home-sewers for their soft, supple drapability— wrinkle-resistant beauty— crisp and easy responsiveness to your needle. You can create an entire wardrobe of this 100% pure virgin wool fabric at a surprisingly modest cost. Come in now... our new "Spring Frolic Colors" are thrilling!

The F. J. Mulholland Co.

The F. J. Mulholland Company

The F. J. Mulholland Company

The F. J. Mulholland Company

The F. J. Mulholland Company

The F. J. Mulholland Company

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY NEWS MAY BE FOUND ON Page 2 Part 2

AAUW Spring Tea And Fashion Show Tuesday, March 11

Tuesday, March 11, has been circled large on AAUW members' calendars, for that is the date of their Spring Fashion Show and Tea.

The event will be held at two o'clock in the Cranbrook auditorium.

Mrs. George Scuibbs is chairman of the day. She has named Mrs. Earl J. Conway, Mrs. Harry W. Muenchinger, Mrs. Emory DeNador, Mrs. John S. Judd and Mrs. Robert W. Wiper to her committee.

Seniors from Birmingham High School, Kingswood and Bloodfield Hills High School will be the group's guests for the afternoon, as will members' daughters who are seniors at other high schools.

Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. DeNador.

Births, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news— call the society editor about them.

Cranbrook Music Guild to Hear H. Wiley Hitchcock

The newly-formed Cranbrook Music Guild has announced the date of its next program, a lecture-recital by H. Wiley Hitchcock.

His subject will be "The His-

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hitchcock of Southfield road. He received his bachelor's degree from Dartmouth College, and the degree of master in music from the University of Michigan.

Hitchcock studied at Columbia University and abroad. He was appointed to the staff of the School of Music at the University of Michigan as Teaching Fellow of Music Literature in 1947. In 1949 he was named instructor of Music Literature.

He has lectured on music appreciation throughout the state. The piano is his major instrument.

CHARTER MEMBERS of the Music Guild will be admitted upon presentation of membership cards. Members are cordially invited to attend, with a small admission being taken at the door.

Mrs. Benjamin Brewster is the chairman of the Guild in its first season. Henry S. Booth is serving as secretary and Wayne Andrae holds the post of treasurer.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Lesh of 1062 Morgan. Mr. and Mrs. Lesh and their children, Jon, 9, and Billy, 6, moved from Sedona, Cal., in December. Mr. Lesh is merchandising and promoting manager of the Traub Manufacturing Company. Mrs. Lesh is affiliated with Alpha Phi.

H. W. HITCHCOCK

MR. HITCHCOCK, a graduate of Cranbrook School, is the son of

SUITS

newer than Springtime

SOFT AND FEMININE . . . NEWEST SILHOUETTES
MAKE A PRETTIER YOU . . .

Stride into Spring in the greatest of style—wearing one of our precious go-everywhere suits . . . impeccably tailored . . . gently styled . . . marvelously fabric-ed in choice all-wools, silks and blends. And, of course, awaiting your selection in a gala array of new Spring colors. All sizes.

Priced from $29.95 to $55.00

The F. J. Mulholland Company