Detroit Film to Have Premiere February 29th

Detroit will see a full-fledged movie premiere when United Services presents its new film "A Magic Day" Friday, February 29, at 1:30 p.m. at the Rackham building.

Peggy Baldwin of 915 Forest, Birmingham, has a part in the film. A student at Wayne University, she is an assistant in the Audio-Visual Production Center which produced the movie.

The film portrays the impact of Detroit's social services on the life of a teenager and her family. Sherman Willson, supervisor of the center, directed the film which has been done in brilliant color.

Local scenes and local people have been used to give the motion picture an authentic feeling. Glenn Gould, instructor in the Wayne University School of Music, wrote the original score. Gould formerly studied under Nicholas Kosza, director of music for Warner Brothers.

The public is invited to attend the premiere with no admission charge. Reservations may be made with the Women's Committee of United Community Services.

Metropolitan Club Aux. To Meet in Bloomfield On Wednesday Evening

The Cranbrook road home of Mrs. Walter Leopold has been designated as the scene of the next meeting of Auxiliary no. 9 of the Metropolitan Club. The group will meet at eight o'clock Wednesday evening, March 5.

Highlight of the meeting will be a "silent auction" of baked goods. Assisting Mrs. Leopold will be Mrs. Ralph Bell, Mrs. Vernon Keener, Mrs. Margaret McLean and Miss Virginia Richardson.

At the Auxiliary's February meeting two delegates were appointed to attend the annual Round-Table Conference, to be held at Harrison Township, St. Clair Shores, on March 3.

Chosen were Mrs. Vernon Griffith and Mrs. Ray Webb.
