B'ham Gets Its Own Jr. League

The week's big news for Junior League men in this area was the telegram notifying them of the acceptance of the former Birmingham chapter of the Detroit unit as a full-fledged separate League.

A petition for a separate League for Birmingham was filed with the Association of Junior Leagues of America two years ago.

In the interval, forms and questionnaires were filled out and returned and inspection tours were held. Questions covered the size of the local population, the number of members, and the type of work being done for the community.

It is indeed a tribute to the local chapter that the fine inspection tour was held unannounced. With this recognition, the Birmingham League becomes the 177th League in America.

MRS. RICHARD H. GROVES

Taffeta Worn by Bride at Evening Wedding Ceremony

A gown of ivory taffeta and tulle was worn by Mary Ann Wilkinson for her Saturday evening wedding to Richard Hugh Groves.

The bride, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Wilkinson of Glenhurst drive, selected a Juliet cap of Alencon lace matching the lace of the V-neckline of her dress.

Seed pearls rimmed the cap which held a finger tip veil of ivory French illusion. Short sleeves and a net tulle floor-length skirt completed her costume.

White roses, stephanotis and ivy composed the bridal bouquet.

THE FIRST meeting of the newly-formed League will be held at Oakland Hills Country Club Tuesday, February 19.

Work on the articles of incorporation are being worked on now and it is hoped that they will be completed for presentation at that time.

The morning session will be followed by luncheon.

Mrs. R. Jamison Williams, chairman of the old chapter, will head the Birmingham League as president.

Garden Club Study Class Ends Thurs.

The last meeting of the Flower Arrangement group, a division of the Birmingham branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, will be held at the Baldwin Library Thursday morning, February 7.

The class, which has been meeting for the past five weeks, is under the direction of Mrs. Albert Allmayer. Instruction and arranging begins at 10 o'clock and continues until noon.

At the close of the Thursday morning session the group will have lunch at Devon Gables. Ladies attending are Mrs. Derwood Gamble, Mrs. J. C. Roberts, Mrs. F. G. Davis, Mrs. W. C. Howell, Mrs. John S. Osler and Mrs. A. L. Hopkins.

Mrs. R. J. Mason, Mrs. A. A. Appleford, Mrs. George Cutler, Mrs. C. B. Hartman, Mrs. J. G. Garney, Mrs. D. H. Stigler, Mrs. T. E. Foote and Mrs. Z. M. Bricker complete the group.

THE REV. WILLIAM MEAD officiated at the rites, which took place at eight-thirty in the evening at Christ Church Cranbrook.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Charles H. Groves of Blue Beaver road, and the late Mr. Groves.

The bride's sister Sally was her maid of honor. Her Nile green and silver brocade gown was fashioned with a V-neckline, cap sleeves and full skirt.

Her matching velvet sash matched her headband and she carried American Beauty roses and ivy.

In identical costumes were bridesmaids Margaret Hornig, Margaret Riddell, Laura Lou Raymond and Mrs. Richard Evans of Ann Arbor.

James McCall was the best man, Robert B. Aikens and Richard Evans of Ann Arbor, James Erwin and William Wilkinson acted as the guests.

ANOTHER SERIES of meetings is scheduled to begin in May, under the direction of Mrs. Allmayer.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh W. Loveland of 1772 Penitence? They and their two children, Patricia Jean, 6, and John, 3, moved from Berkeley in December. Mr. Loveland has taught in the Birmingham Public Schools for seven years. He is a member of M.E.A., N.E.A. teachers' organizations, M.I.T.S. and the Sideline Quarterbacks. He spends his spare time coaching junior high school sports.

MRS. WILKINSON received her guests at Oakland Hills Country Club following the ceremony in a ballroom lounge of emerald green taffeta with brown accessories.

The groom's mother wore deep aqua shantung, accented with pale pink accessories.

On leaving the reception, the bride donned a navy blue suit with matching shoes. She carried a red purse, and her hat was trimmed in a matching shade.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Groves are making their home in Ann Arbor where they are both students at the University of Michigan.
