Social Events
The President's Ball, an annual event of the Franklin Community association will be held Friday night, next week. Tickets may be purchased from Fred Wynn, Stanley Krentel or Homer Heidemann. A dinner and dance, the affair will take place at the Forest Lake country club, with music by Ray Perkins and his orchestra.

Members of Wing Lake Farms, incorporated will get their social season underway when they and their guests gather at the Franklin community hall tomorrow for a square dance and buffet supper party. Callers will be Irwin White and Dick Lewis. The chairman in charge of entertainment is Mrs. Dean A. Davis.

Back from Florida
Mrs. W. G. Bihler and son Bobby, of Woodside drive, who left with her husband and son George on Dec. 31 for a Florida vacation, have returned. They made Sea Crest Manor at Hollywood their holiday headquarters. Bihler and George, a student at the University, flew back after a week's vacation. Bihler flew south again last week to spend a few days there with his family and to accompany them home.

Visiting
Mr. and Mrs. Mel Mitchell, of Colby Lane, are visiting with friends and relatives in Chicago. Mrs. Lynn Hershey has returned to her home on Franklin road after a visit at Lawrence, Kan.

Hosts
Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Blanchfield were hosts to 12 guests from Detroit last Sunday at an afternoon bowling session and buffet supper to their home on Old Colony road. The affair was held to bid adieu to Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Stromber, who have left since for Florida.

Birthday Supper
Ten friends gathered at the J. M. Gillen home on Wellington road last Saturday night to celebrate the birthday of Mrs. Gillen. The guests were Mrs. Arthur Huterbaugh, the Ed Bennetts, the James Martins and the James Warners, all from Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ford, of Detroit.

WALNUT LAKE—West Bloomfield Community Chest met Jan. 24 for election of officers and a general meeting.
Officers are Emmett DeConick, president; Ray Baker, first vice president; Webster Francis, second vice president; Alva Stilwell, secretary and O. E. Peters, treasurer.

Mrs. Charles L. Coppersmith was elected a director to replace Mrs. George Schellenberg of Sylvan Village, who resigned. Claude Whitmer is replacing Curtis McKenzie as a director.

A COMMITTEE was appointed to represent West Bloomfield to the Oakland-out-county United Fund group. They are Emmett DeConick, Claude Whitmer and Ray Baker.
Welfare committee members are Douglas Haddock, George Osterbeck, O. E. Peters and Ed Pounds. Mrs. Arnold Thomas and Mrs. Alva Stilwell are in charge of publicity.

The Community Chest voted to allocate half of their budget, $452, to these organizations: American Red Cross, $1,350; United Health & Welfare, $1,285; Boy Scouts, $1,000; Girl Scouts, $485; and Birmingham YMCA, $75.

The next meeting will be held April 17 at 8:00 p.m. at West Bloomfield town hall and is open to the public.

Birmingham 'Y' Junior Boys Down Detroit Hannan

Birmingham YMCA Junior Boys won their third tilt of the season by downing Hannan YMCA of the Detroiters' floor 30 to 24 Saturday.
It was the best game of the year for the local quintet and it led throughout.
Sam Stinson took the opening tip-off and dribbled down the floor for the first of his 10 baskets. He duplicated this feat a few minutes later and Birmingham was out in front 6 to 4 at the end of the first quarter.

THIS LEAD was stretched to 19 to 6 at the half when Tom Masters and Tom Griffin broke into the scoring column.
Both squads played defensive ball in the final quarter and the lead held to the end of the game.
Stinson's 21 points led both teams in scoring while Bill Appel and Jack Jowler played best on defensive for the Greys and Whites.
Birmingham plays St. Antoine of Detroit at the First Baptist Church Saturday afternoon.

The Tryb township water system supplies a total of 1,150 users.

The sixth grade Girl Scouts, Troop 68, met last Monday at the home of Mrs. Thomas Snyder to make ceramics. They used their own initiative and each made what appealed to them. There were animals, ash trays and candy dishes molded with assistance from Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. Donald Shank. Mary Roberts was hostess and provided the nibbles.

Girl Scout Troop 60 met at the home of Mrs. Donald Irvin for a business meeting. Nibbles were provided by Joan Smith.
There will be a father and daughter banquet at the Community House in Birmingham on Feb. 9 at 6:30 p.m. This is for the Intermediate Scouts.
